LOCAL MENTION.

Mr. Ned Thayer, from Baltimore, is with us again, stopping with Dr. Ferguson.

The Piney Woods Inn will give another card party next Tuesday evening.

A negro plantation concert will be given in the parlors of the Piney Woods Inn next Wednesday night, and a collection taken for the benefit of Pickford Sanitarium.

The town of Niagara, two miles north of Southern Pines, has an attractive ad in this issue. Write T. S. Richardson for any information desired.

We note with regret the death of Dr. Norman Robinson, which occurred at his home near Orlando, Fla. Dr. Robinson was well known here as director of the Experimental Farm, and during his stay of two years made a large number of friends.

Mr E. E. Ewell, a member of the executive committee of the N. C. Horticultural Society, with headquarters at Atlanta, died last Sunday of typhoid fever. He was a frequent visitor to our town and was a worthy young man.

We have had pleasant calls this week from Mr. A. H. Kahn, of New York, who is here to take a season of rest and recreation. He is one of the thorough business men of that big city, and is well informed on the leading topics of the day.

The Southern Pines Hotel will maintain its usual distinction as the center of attraction next Monday evening, February 15, when its annual masquerade ball will take place. Any particulars, aside from those furnished in last week's Free Press, will be supplied by Mr. W. E. Giles.

$750 will buy, for home or investment, pleasant well furnished 7-room cottage, center of town. Address P. O. Box 113, Southern Pines.

The latest in vegetation is maple blossoms with snow accompaniments. The little maple tree in front of the Free Press office came out in full blossom Monday, and the snow storm on Wednesday made the pretty white blossoms shine forth with even greater brilliancy.

A pleasant event was the finch party given by Mrs. Cottle last Friday evening. There were present Miss Norris, Mrs. Harvey, Miss Campbell, Miss Sibley, Mrs. Goodwin, the Misses Dingwall, Miss Eastman, Miss Bryant, Mrs. Pintler, Miss Eaton. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ivy and pine. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served, and a souvenir paper knife was given to each guest. The lateness of the hour at which the guests departed testified to the enjoyable evening spent.

Call and see him. Office hours, 10 to 12—2 to 5.

The military flag eucbre at the Piney Woods Inn last Monday evening was one of the social events of the season. The playing took place in the main parlor, which was most attractively decorated with flags, large and small. There were fourteen tables playing, or 56 people, and as the players moved from one table to another it was a pretty sight. Twelve appropriate prizes were distributed among the lucky winners.

Mr. W. Banghart, of Change Water, N. J., and T. McDonald, of Woburn, Mass., are at Pleasant View Cottage.

Mrs. A. Graham, mother of Mrs. F. A. Dimmick, died last Tuesday at the age of 75.

Mrs. and Miss Warren, of Whately, Mass., have taken rooms at Mr. French's. They come from the fertile region of the Connecticut River Valley, but where deep snows and low temperatures have this year been so prevalent. Although they may find a day or two now and then of cold weather, they will soon realize that the climate of this section is very good

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured By Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplet, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. ## UNDER THE LONG LEAVED PINE.

BY B. B. U.

I heard the sweep of the restless breeze;
Like the ceaseless rush of the troubled seas,

Whose wave on wave beats up on shore
As millions have done in days of yore;
And there seemed to come from the leafy crest

A sigh like the sigh of a soul distressed—
And I thought of the days the land had seen

When over its fields the South was queen.
And I breathed a prayer that it once again

Might come 'neath the rule of the old time men,

And after its days of penitent shrift
Enjoy as of old its prosperous thrift.
And win from the world its meed of praise
As it used to get in its halcyon days.

Judging from the frequent and enthusiastic rehearsals for the George Washington entertainment to be given at the Opera House February 22, we feel safe in promising our readers an evening's entertainment which they can not afford to miss. The words appropriate for this entertainment are set to the music of "Pinafore," which furnishes bright, sparkling solos, duets, choruses, etc. More than two dozen of our singers take part in the choruses and drills. The rehearsals for next week will be at 7.30 o'clock Monday evening at King's Daughters' Hall, and Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday evenings at the Opera House.
