Patch's Famous Department Store.

A department store of the magnitude possessed by that of C. T. Patch & Bro. is a credit to a town three times the size of Southern Pines, and the amount of capital invested is convincing proof that its owners have an abiding faith in the future of the town as a business center. Every opportunity is offered the most careful and cautious buyer, and if there is anything in reason wanted the want is most sure to be supplied. The dry-goods department is up to date. Clothing and hats, shoes in every style wanted, and at low prices considering the goods. Neckwear, collars, cuffs, handkerchiefs, etc., and the department for trunks, valises, and handbags is most complete.

In the grocery department everything is complete, and the class of fancy groceries offered is not surpassed in any city in North Carolina.

Visit Patch's Department store if you wish to buy the best of everything found in a well stocked department store.

The subject for Rev. Mr. Fulford's sermon at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning will be "Christian vocation." Service promptly at 11 o'clock. At the evening service at 7.30, Rev. Mr. Emery will speak from the subject, "A hearing heart."

575 Copies of the Free Press sold for next week. Fact!

Those new and desirable corset covers you want and must have can be found real cheap at Patch's Department store.

All members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and those who were formerly members and are now in Southern Pines, are invited to an informal meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Goldsmith, corner of Bennett street and Connecticut ave., Thursday after, noon, March 17, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Gun metal shirt waists and Dresden buttons—the latest thing out, and the nicest. You will find them at Patch's.

If troubled with weak digestion, belching or sour stomach, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by Sadelson & Flint and Underwood's Pharmacy.

NOTICE.

As administrator of the Estate of the late George W. P. Jerrard, deceased, I will offer for sale on the 4th day of April 1904, to the highest bidder all the personal effects belonging to the said estate, consisting of the entire estate. Terms of sale cash.

MRS. CATHERINE S. JERRARD, Admr.

The "Destreek Schule."

A large number of people were present at the Opera House Monday night to witness the entertainment known as the "Destreek School." Miss Black made a very good teacher, but it kept her busy to manage such wayward young school boys as Capt. A. O. Laufman and Messrs Jones, Hall, Hamlin, and others; and such young girls as Mrs. Day, Mrs. Ellsworth, Mrs. Tarbell, and others. The classes recited well; in fact, so well that the school committeemen, Messrs. Tarbell and Ellsworth, could not ask them questions hard enough, besides inflicting the usual punishment of making speeches consistent with closing day exercises. Miss Margaret Laufman read an appropriate little poem of farewell to the school, and in connection with the visiting committee asked the school all about that famous little peanut story. The entertainment was for the benefit of the Congregational Sunday school, and the sum of about $65 was realized.

NOTICE.

Next week's issue of the Free Press will contain some excellent illustrations, some splendid articles from prominent men, a handsome map, and will be double the size of the issue of to-day. More copies will be printed and placed in the hands of those who buy and pay for them than was ever issued from a press in Southern Pines in any one week. Those who wish to advertise can have a rate of 1 1/2 cents per line, or 20 cents per inch display space, for this week's number only.
