LOCAL MENTION.

Miss Edith H izmann is home from the Visitation Convent, Washington, D. C., to spend the Easter holidays with her parents.

Threads for Hardanger, the latest embroidery; prettiest line ever seen. At Patch's.

Johnson & French have sold lots 7 and 8, block L and 4, including the I. L. Hamlin residence on Pennsylvania ave. and Broad st. Name of purchaser is withheld for the present.

Low mass will be said at St. Anthony's church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Special music by the choir.

W. T. Tyson of the VanLindley Farm paid us a call yesterday and reports that the cold did no damage to the fruit.

Gun metal shirt waists and Dresden buttons—the latest thing out, and the nicest. You will find them at Patch's.

Many of us were afraid that the cold spell of this week would injure the fruit crop, but after hearing from many of the most prominent growers, we are assured that no damage has been done.

Jonson & French have received a check for $300.00 to pay for the Spring tract of land of Mrs. Ruggles, sold to L. A. Vance of Yonkers, N. Y.

We are receiving new goods every day at Ordway's.

Mrs. J. H. Tuttle, and son, from Milford, Conn., are two pleasant visitors to our section, with headquarters at the Inn. Mrs. Tuttle seems pleased with the many interesting attractions of the sandhills and has enjoyed her visits to the fruit farms, and also to the extensive dairy farm at Pinehurst. She will go north on Monday—and we have reason to believe that she will remember us pleasantly.

Craddock's toilet soap—the best you ever saw and the cheapest—at Patch's.

MORE RIOTS.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic and effective nerve, and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia, and expels Malaria germs. Only 50 cents, and satisfaction guaranteed by Sadelson & Flint and Underwood's Pharmacy.

BOILED HAM, ASHLAND HAM,

Berlinger Ham, Bologna Sausage, Pressed Pigs Feet, Cooked Roast Beef and Chipped Dried Beef, all Sliced to suit Purchaser—at the Ladies' oxfords—A splendid assortment of the H. W. Crocker famous $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00; any size and width. They are beauties and found only at Patch's Department store.

"Good afternoon Mr. Editor. Is this the local paper—the free and untrammelled Press?" "Yes sir." "Well, my name is just plain John Vanderbilt—not one of the Williamses by that name. I am just nobody from nowhere, but I am spending a few weeks in your town, stopping at the Mount Vernon House. I am also from New York. Good day."

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kelsey and son, and Mrs. White and children, of Indiana, who have been here more than three months, occupying apartments in the Essex, returned to the north Sunday night.

Dr. C. E. Morrison, Mrs. Morrison and two children, of Bar Harbor, Maine, have left for the North. They will spend some time in Philadelphia on the way. They have had rooms at the Os-good.

See our line of Ladies' and Misses Oxfords before you buy, at Ordway's.

W. D. Carpenter, who met with an accident while changing train at Florence, S. C., March 18, has been for the past ten days at Southern Pines hotel under the care of Dr. K. M. Ferguson. At first it was thought a fracture of the ribs. While it has been very painful, it is not as serious as first considered. He, with his wife, will leave for Washington Sunday or Monday.

Just received the nicest line of ladies Dress and Shirt Waist goods at Ordway's

There is no prettier stand in Southern Pines than the one containing the splendid selection of Walter Pratt's famous toilet articles at Patch's Department store. Choice perfumes of every flavor, and sachet powders, and at prices which defy competition. It is worth your time to drop in and see this assortment. Don't miss the next opportunity.

Rev. A. A. Ellsworth will preach the Easter sermon at the Congregational church Sunday morning at 10.30. Special music is expected, and there will be a decoration of flowers. Mrs. Tenny leads the Senior C. E. meeting at 7 P. M. Old and young are cordially invited to these services. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Junior C. E. at 4 P. M.

Mr. A. H. Kahn has returned to his home in New York after spending six weeks at the Piney Woods Inn. Mr. Kahn is a most pleasing and entertaining gentleman, and says he never saw a more perfect climate than ours, having gained several pounds, and left feeling that he was well repaid for his visit. He desires the Free Press to express his thanks to Mr. and Mrs. St. John, at the Inn, for such splendid entertainment and for many courtesies which he says added greatly to the pleasure of his stay.

D. F. McAdams and L. P. French have bought 6 building lots on Cor. Indiana avenue and Ashe street.

The Niagara Company has bought of Mr. Gerish the 30 acre tract of land, including the house and lot, at Manly.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED.

William Shafer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Sadelson & Flint and Underwood's Pharmacy.
