Mrs. A. O. Laufman left a few days ago to attend the bedside of her son, who is sick in Pittsburg.

We are pleased to know that Dr. L. F. High, who has been through a difficult operation at Johns-Hopkins, has been reported as passing through the ordeal safely.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles T. Geyer will wish her a pleasant visit across the water, as she sailed from New York last Tuesday for a trip to Naples, accompanied by her niece, Miss Eng.

Do not forget the date—Tuesday, March 21—for the Deestrick Skule." Due notice will be given for the place. Popular prices and a good time is in store. Make a note of it now.

Dr. Foss will preach Sunday morning at the Congregational Church. He will leave early next week to attend the Philadelphia Conference of which he is a member. While there he will consult his physicians and decide whether to resume his work in the city or return to Southern Pines and finish the season.

Mrs. Elliott entertained the members of the Euchre Club very handsomely Tuesday p. m. at the residence of Miss Butler. The prizes were awarded 1st Mrs. Leon St John, 2nd Mrs. Milligan, 3rd Mrs. Long, consolation Miss Heizmann. After the distribution of the regular prizes a table full of packages was brought in and each one invited to take one as a souvenir and that one package contained a special prize, Mrs. Schwartz was the lady who selected the lucky package. After this fun was over a very dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Milligan entertains Friday Mar. 17 at the Opera House.

Dr. Foss to Lecture again.

In compliance with many requests Dr. Foss has decided to give another Lecture on Tuesday evening, March 28th.

The subject of the Lecture will be, "Up the Ladder; or the Man that Gets There."

This Lecture has been given many times in several states and has met with great favor. It is of a more popular nature than the former Lecture.

Mr. M. B. Bates, of Pittsburg, Pa. came down and spent Sunday with his wife at LaFleur Cottage.

Services at the Baptist Church Sunday at 11 a. m. Pastor's subject. The true nature and reasons for religious consideration. Text Isa. 1:2. Evening at 7.30 Subject: The Lords goodness.

It was a mistake in type last week which made us say that the proceeds from the February 22nd entertainment amounted to only $8.35; the amount should have been $10.56. We cheerfully make this correction.

Miss Sallie Burt, of Providence, R. I. one of our most popular winter visitors, occupied a private box at the theater, Tuesday evening as did also Mrs. C. H. Everett, of the same city. They are some of our most prominent visitors this season.

Some Prominent Visitors.

The pleasing countenances of a trio of prominent visitors penetrated the innermost depths of this den Tuesday, and reminded us that Tarrytown, N. Y., and Waterbury, Conn., were not to be omitted from future consideration. They were John H. Murray, a prominent real estate dealer from Tarrytown, N. Y.; John Birney, a whole-soul visitor and E. M. Boughton, a jeweler of Waterbury, Conn. They are having a good time hunting for pastime, and are enjoying as much sunshine and fresh air as any one else. Other visitors arriving and registering at the Prospect House are John S. Huntress, Rutland, Mass.; Alfred Watts, Boston; Chas. Houghton; Rutland, Mass.; Alfred S. Jodrey, Halifax, N. S. and Jas. J. Russell, Peabody, Mass.

Stop Coughing!

Why cough so much when, for TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, you can have almost instant relief? Our COMPOUND SYR. WHITE PINE and TAR is simply IT when there are coughs to be cured. There is nothing "just as good" at any price. Especially do we recommend it in La Grippe coughs. Sold only by

CAROLINA PHARMACY,

None genuine without the pine tree on label.

The Reason We Sell

SO MUCH OF OUR

Southern Pines Cough Remedy

Is that we are so particular about what goes into it and how it is made. Every ingredient must be of the freshest; every measure must be exact; the handling and bottling must be most carefully done.

AND IT CURES COUGHS.

That is more than can be said for many of the advertised remedies. It isn't an anodyne to give a temporary relief where the underlying trouble should be removed, but a combination of expectorants which clears the air passages, relieves congestion and prevents all tendency to development of bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption. 25c a bottle.
