UNC Women's Golf in 2nd, Trails Devils at Duke Invite

DURHAM - Led by Kelly McCall, the UNC women's golf team is tied for second with Wake Forest with a two-day total of 621 in the Duke Invitational. The invitational, led by Duke with a total of 602, will conclude today.

McCall, a sophomore from Mahopac,
N.Y., shot a 74 Monday and trails Duke's Pam Soliman (72) by one stroke for the individual title. Other Tar Heel scores in the tournament are: senior Meredith Tucker and junior Rachel Poston (157, 19th place); junior Staci Aber and sophomore Patricia White (163, 42nd); senior Mandy Kuhn and sophomore Megan Morgan (164, 48th); sophomore April Wolfe (173, 79th).

Man Who Stabbed Seles Avoids Prison Time Again

HAMBURG, Germany — The man convicted of stabbing tennis star Monica Seles avoided a prison sentence for a second time Monday, a decision that brought outrage from the tennis community.

Judge Gertraut Goering ruled that Seles failed to convince the court that the 1993 attack was responsible for her not resum-

The judge also said there was no evidence Guenter Parche, who contends he was not trying to kill Seles but disable her so Steffi Graf could regain the No. 1 ranking, intended to do more harm to Seles.

The athlete wrote a letter to the court, saying Parche's attack had "destroyed my life." But the judge said testimony for Seles herself was necessary to support such

Goering added that a likely explanation for the fact that Parche's five-inch knife didn't cause a graver injury was that "he didn't want to kill her."

"We can't rule out that he meant to do more than he did to Miss Seles, but we also can't prove this," the judge said. Seles, who lives in Sarasota, Fla., issued one-sentence statement through IMG, her management firm. "I am as surprised as everyone else, and I just don't understand this," she said.

Athletics' Ace Eckersley First to Sign New Contract

OAKLAND, Calif. — Dennis Eckersley became the first player to agree to a major league contract in more than three months, returning Monday to the Oakland Athletics with a one-year deal.

Eckersley, 40, is coming off a $7.5 mil-ion, two-year contract. Oakland declined to exercise a $4 million option last fall and instead paid a $300,000 buyout. Terms of the new deal weren't immediately available. The Ale her the section for the property of the new deal weren't immediately available. The Ale her the section for the property of the property o able. The A's have an option for 1997.

No player has agreed to a major league contract since Dec. 22, the day before owners attempted to implement a salary cap. The union boycotted signings through Feb. 5, and owners then refused to bargain indi-

U.S. District Judge Sonia Sotomayor issued an injunction last Friday that forced owners to operate under the terms and conditions of the expired collective bargaining agreement.

Eckersley has saved a club-record 291 games for the A's. He had his best year in 1992, when he saved 51 games and won both the American League MVP and Cy

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Davis Love fought back tears after a victory in New Orleans gave him a last-minute place in the Masters and turned him into one of the tournament

The tears, however, almost certainly would have flowed had he known of the applause from a deathbed in Austin, Texas.

Ben Crenshaw told the story Monday following the death of Harvey Penick, coach and teacher, mentor and friend to several generations of Texas golfers.
