to become only the third man - and first foreigner—to win three consecutive times.

He covered the course in 2 hours, 9 minutes, 22 seconds — more than two minutes slower than his record time last year — and beat Tanui by a full minute. He celebrated his triple triumph by raising three fingers to the crowd.

BOSTON — There was a familiar finish to Monday's Boston Marathon. "Last year's race was tougher," said Ndeti, who beat Andres Espinosa of ish to Monday's Boston Marathon.

Cosmas Ndeti won the men's race for the third straight year, while Uta Pippig captured the women's title for the second year in a row — the first time in Boston Marathon history that both defending champions repeated.

There also was a repeat winner in the Mexico by only three seconds in 1994. "This year was not so tough.

"I'm going to come back next year, and I'm going to win again."

About the only thing different from last year's race was the absence of the traditional Patriot's Day game at Fenway Park. The Red Sox didn't play this year because the baseball strike delayed the start of the
