Announcements Announcements Announcements Help Wanted Help Wanted Help Wanted Help Wanted Help Wanted

Are you an EMT or Paramedic? Want to be?

You can be a part of 9-1-1 emergency rescue.

The South Orange EMS and Rescue Squad, providers of emergency medical and technical rescue services in southern Orange and northern Chatham counties, including Chapel Hill, Carrboro, and UNC, are looking for motivated, dedicated people who want to be emergency medical and/or rescue technicians. The Rescue Squad is giving an info session for ANYONE who may be interested in learning about the all-volunteer Rescue Squad. This ONCE-A-YEAR info session is aimed at fully informing anyone who may be interested in joining the Squad, although ANYONE may attend, free of charge, without obligation. The Rescue Squad info session will be held Sept 11 at 7pm in the Dean E. Smith Center Pressroom at court-level. (The U-bus runs to the Smith Center at 6:45pm) To reserve YOUR seat at this info session, please call Dave at 929-8819. We're looking forward to meeting you!

Members of the South Orange EMS and Rescue Squad, many of whom are UNC students just like you!

ACTIVIST INTERNSHIPS

Polluters do it. Health insurers do it. The banks do it. The tobacco industry does it. The NRA does it. It's called buying political influence through campaign contributions. It stops long overdue reforms and wins tax loopholes and other advantages for the contributors. The Institute for Southern Studies and the NC Alliance for Democracy, with 33-member groups, have been leading the fight for campaign finance, lobbying, and government ethics reform in NC. We are looking for a few good interns interested on these issues and willing to commit to working at least 4 hours a week. We can't offer wages, but we can offer excellent practical work experience in public interest research and organizing. Academic projects and work for credit can be arranged in some courses. Political Science, Sociology, Economics, and Social work majors preferred. Volunteer opportunities also available. Call 967-9942 for further information and to arrange an interview.
