

Miami of Ohio Coach Sendek To Replace Robinson at State

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 RALEIGH — Miami of Ohio coach Herb Sendek will be named the new head coach at N. C. State on Wednesday, N. C. State said Tuesday evening.

Sendek flew to Raleigh from Ohio Tuesday to work out details before being announced as the Wolfpack's 17th coach in school history and replacement for Les Robinson, who left the post on March 22 after six seasons.

At 33, Sendek will become the youngest coach in the ACC.

A news conference introducing Sendek as the new head coach is scheduled for 11 a.m. Wednesday, the school said in a news release.

Sendek, who had taken the Redskins to the postseason in each of his three years at the school, was a former assistant to Rick Pitino at Kentucky, turned down the UNLV job last year.

N. C. State athletic director Todd Turner originally had hoped to hire a successor to Robinson by April 13, but the process took longer than expected.

Miami finished 21-8 in the 1995-96 season and upset Arizona in the first round of the NCAA tournament in 1995.

Sendek's teams went to the National Invitational Tournament in the other two years.

Tar Heels Whomp Wildcats, End 2-Game Skid

After having six long days to think about its back-to-back losses to William & Mary and Georgetown, the North Carolina Women's Lacrosse Davidson ..... 2 UNC ..... 21

women's lacrosse team got back to its dominating ways Tuesday night against Davidson. And how.

No. 14 UNC (10-3) jumped out to a whopping 15-1 halftime lead, pulled most of their starters at the half and cruised to a 21-2 win over the Wildcats (5-5) in its last home game of the season at Fetzer Field.

In the rout, UNC shattered its team record of 19 goals in a game, set just 18 days ago against Virginia Tech. And the Tar Heels showed off the total package against Davidson, tying their record for fewest goals allowed set against Vanderbilt on March 23. Upon surviving its first losing streak, the program re-sent a message to its future opponents: UNC isn't afraid to end a game before it hardly begins.

"Not at all," UNC attacker Erin

McGinnis said. "It's always our goal to come out hard and fast, and today we also played well as a team."

The team concept starts first with the all-around play of McGinnis. The freshman sensation led the Tar Heels with four goals and two assists. For the season, she paces UNC in both goals and assists and is the nation's highest-scoring freshman.

Sophomore Sarah Dacey notched three goals, and sophomore attacker Lori Pasquantonio tallied three assists. But upon outshooting the 'Cats 31-2 in the second half, Slingluff subbed in the bench warmers for the game's final 30 minutes. As a result, Alison Baker, Kara Gannon and Zoe Parker scored their first career goals.
