

Sorority house closed temporarily for renovations

The recent drenching from Hurricane Fran may be fresh on the minds of most students, but flooding and water damage are nothing new to Chapel Hill. The Delta Zeta sorority house suffered water damage during a thunderstorm in September of last year. Building contractors were called in to estimate the cost of repairs and found structural damage requiring renovation, said Dillon Barnes, president of Delta Zeta sorority. "It's a gorgeous house, but they have discovered structural things that needed repair," Director of Greek Affairs Ron Binder said.

Barnes said the construction at the house has forced residents to temporarily relocate. The displaced Delta Zeta members are currently residing in the Carolina Apartments and are not being assessed any extra costs, she said.

"The Student House Corporation and the National Chapter (of Delta Zeta) have put up the members in fully furnished apartments," Binder said. "They really did right by them and did not pass on the cost to the students."

Because of liability concerns, Delta Zeta was forced to conduct most of their rush events in a tent outside the house. The final rush event was held at the Carolina Inn, Barnes said.

Despite the inconvenience of the renovations, Binder said the sorority was able to hold what he called "the best rush that sorority ever had."

"When something like this occurs, you can go in one of two directions. They definitely took the high road," Binder said.

Barnes said the adversity the sorority had gone through was a growing experience for the group.

"We had an awesome rush," Barnes said. "The whole situation brought us all a lot closer together."

Barnes said the house, located on Hillsborough Street, was built in 1989 and houses 34 to 40 women.

The repairs, which are scheduled to be completed in 60 days, will include the addition of a chapter room downstairs and a sprinkler system, Barnes said.

Macintosh. More affordable than ever.

With low student prices on Macintosh® computers, you can start doing whatever it is you want to do. And to make it even easier for you to purchase a Macintosh, apply for the Apple® Computer Loan. So you can take home a Mac, and you won't have to make a payment for 90 days.* How do you get started? Just visit your campus computer store today and pick up a Mac.

Leave your mark.

Visit your campus computer store or <http://campus.apple.com/>

*Offer expires October 11, 1996. No payment of interest or principal will be required for 90 days. Interest accruing during this 90-day period will be added to the principal and will bear interest, which will be included in the repayment schedule. For example, the month of May 1996 had an interest rate of 12.15% with an Annual Percentage Rate (APR) of 13.97%. A monthly payment of $32.86 for the Power Mac 5200 system is an estimate based on a total loan amount of $1,913.83, which includes a simple purchase price of $1,799 and a 6% loan origination fee. Interest is variable based on the Prime Rate as reported on the 5th business day of the month in The Wall Street Journal, plus a spread of 3.9%. Monthly payment and APR shown assumes deferment of principal and does not include state or local sales tax. The Apple Computer Loan has an 8-year loan term with no prepayment penalty, and is subject to credit approval. Monthly payments may vary depending on actual computer system prices, total loan amounts, state and local sales taxes and a change in the monthly variable interest rate. ©1996 Apple Computer, Inc.
