

Attention Faculty!

FALL IS THE TIME

TO ORDER SPRING BOOKS

Friday, September 27

is the suggested date

to submit textbook orders for the Spring, 1997 semester.

STUDENTS DEPEND ON YOU!

Student Stores reminds faculty that the availability of used textbooks and the amount of money that we pay students at buyback depends on the timely submission of textbook request forms.

WHY SO EARLY?

Student Stores can start buying and paying significantly more for used books from UNC students if we know which books will be used on campus in the spring. Also, used books are in peak supply from national wholesalers in the early fall. The sooner we start ordering books, the more used books students will find at Student Stores.

TO THANK YOU:

Student Stores will provide all faculty who meet the Friday, September 27 Spring semester textbook request deadline with a $1.00 gift certificate to the Daily Grind.

WE MAKE IT EASY!

DON'T FORGET YOUR COURSE PACKS!

Now is the time to order course packs because the copyright clearance procedure can take up to 8 weeks. Publishing houses are usually closed for two weeks during December, making it much more difficult to obtain permission to reprint. For information on printing or reprinting a course pack, contact Student Stores Custom Publishing today!
