

After avenging only loss, hockey to face Duke

BY KURT TONDORF
ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

It's a testament to how tough the ACC is in field hockey: Duke, standing fourth in the conference, is No. 12 in the nation in the NCAA field hockey poll. The Blue Devils (10-7, 2-4 in the ACC) are fielding one of their best teams in years and are led by standout Melissa Panasci.

Tar Heel forward NANCY PELLIGREEN leads UNC in scoring with 40 points.

wider than that famous canyon in Arizona. So far in 1996, UNC is the undisputed king of its sport, and the Tar Heels' roughest stretch of the season is undeniably behind them.

emerging with a win. The only blemish on its record, a 4-3 loss to Old Dominion, was avenged last Saturday in Norfolk, Va., when UNC pasted the No. 3 Monarchs 4-2 in front of the largest crowd the sport's ever seen.

history, and she's only a junior. But Hellion is also human. When confronted by a defense that has the skill and the will to shut her down, Panasci can run out of panache, as she did in Duke's loss to the Tar Heels on Sept. 25. The UNC defense held her scoreless and routed the Devils 5-2.

Jones nabs preseason honors in league, national balloting

STAFF REPORT

North Carolina point guard Marion Jones is among 20 players chosen as preseason candidates for the Boost/Naismith College Basketball Player of the Year award, the Atlanta Tipoff Club announced Tuesday.

Player of the Year in media balloting at the league's annual Operation Basketball held Sunday in Greensboro. Jones joins UNC's Tracy Reid, Virginia's Tora Suber, N.C. State's Chasity Melvin and Duke's Ty Hall as preseason first-team All-ACC selections.
