

Guidelines for Listing Events in twenty-four Seven twenty-four Seven, UNC-CH's weekly guide to events and happenings, is published Tuesdays during the Fall and Spring Semesters. This calendar is limited to only those events sponsored by the University, its schools, departments, organizations, and its recognized student organizations. These events must be held on the UNC-CH campus and be open to the public. Events sponsored by non-University groups cannot be included.

To Place a Listing

Submission forms are available from the Carolina Union Information Desk or by calling 966-3128 to request delivery by campus mail. A form is also included on this calendar and may be photocopied for multiple use. Please TYPE your form and include a contact person's typed name and signature, telephone number, and available times so that questions regarding your form can be answered. Promotional photographs with descriptions, artwork, and/or logos for your event are welcome and will be used as space allows.

Deadlines

Calendar listings must be received at least one week before their publication date. All entries must be received by 5:00pm on the submission dates (below). If you are uncertain about a deadline, holiday/break schedule, or any other information, please call 966-3128.
