Moss arrested for battery

ST. ALBANS, W. Va. — Star Marshall receiver Randy Moss was arrested Sunday on misdemeanor charges of domestic battery, St. Albans police said.

Elizabeth Ann Offutt was also arrested and charged with domestic battery and destruction of property. She is a former girlfriend. The pair have a child.

Moss was being held in the South Central Regional Jail in South Charleston pending his arraignment Sunday night at Kanawha County Magistrate Court.

The arrest marked the latest of several run-ins with the law for Moss.

In March 1995, Moss was arrested for beating a fellow DuPont High School student. Last May, he failed a drug test while on probation, and in June, he was sent to jail after admitting he had smoked marijuana.

A judge released Moss from jail under more stringent probation guidelines, allowing him to attend Marshall this fall.

Moss, who transferred from Florida State after being kicked off the team, has been an impact player for Marshall, catching at least one touchdown pass in every game this season. Moss's touchdown catches in 11 consecutive games this year broke a Div. I-AA record set in 1984 by current San Francisco 49ers receiver Jerry Rice.

Marshall concluded its regular season at 11-0 Saturday, and is preparing for the Division I-AA playoffs.

Haas, Kite team for win

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. — Finishing with a spectacular run of nine consecutive birdies, Tom Kite and Jay Haas won the Shark Shootout by two shots Sunday.

Kite and Haas teamed for their second straight 60, this time in a scramble format, to wind up the three-day tournament at 29-under-par 187.

Second-round leaders Craig Stadler and Lanny Wadkins had a closing 63 to finish tied for second with Hale Irwin and Lee Janzen at 27-under.

"Nine straight birdies on the back nine; that'll win most of them," Irwin said, marveling at the way Kite and Haas got on a roll.

Haas began the birdie barrage when he rolled in an 8-footer on No. 10.

Kite sank putts of 25 and 30 feet on the next two holes, then one or the other of the two players hit close to the pin for relatively simple birdies the rest of the way.

Late rally lifts Wake to win over hapless Duke

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WINSTON-SALEM — All season, Duke said it would never come to this, but the Blue Devils are now staring Atlantic Coast Conference infamy in the face.

Duke's winless season hit its lowest point Saturday as Wake Forest scored 14 points in the final 7 1/2 minutes for a 17-16 victory — placing the Blue Devils within one loss of the first 0-11 season in league history.

The Blue Devils (0-10, 0-7 in the ACC) held a 13-point lead midway through the fourth quarter before the Demon Deacons (3-7, 1-6) rallied behind Brian Kuklick, who was 27-of-50 for 299 yards and two touchdowns.

"We were in a new situation. We hadn't been up by 13 points all year," said Duke quarterback David Green. "We've always been coming from behind and a lot of guys get down, but we were in a winning situation at that point and you still have to stay competitive to win. We didn't."

Wake Forest's final TDs were aided by three Duke pass interference penalties and a defense that allowed Kuklick to scramble until he found open receivers.

"Part of the problem might have been we were a little hesitant because we knew they were so far to go. Maybe we weren't as aggressive as we should have been," said Duke defensive back Tawambi Settles.

The Demon Deacons converted four fourth-downs in an 18-play drive that closed the margin to 16-10, capped by Kuklick's 13-yard TD pass to Desmond Clark.

After holding Duke on its next series, Wake Forest went 89 yards for the winning score with 1:27 left. Kuklick was 7-of-9 on the drive, including a game-winning 3-yarder to Clark, who made the juggling catch despite a double team and a Duke defender hanging on his arm.

"They knocked it out of my hands once and I just had to stay with it," said Clark, whose 13 catches for 137 yards were the most by a Wake Forest player in a winning game.

FSU pounds Golden Eagles

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Warrick Dunn scored three touchdowns, one on a 77-yard pass play, as third-ranked Florida State rolled up 548 yards and claimed a 54-14 victory Saturday night over No. 25 Southern Mississippi.

Dunn's touchdowns give him a school-record 47 at Florida State (9-0), which has only one next Saturday's game against Maryland standing between it and a Nov. 30 showdown of unbeaten against top-ranked Florida.

FSU tailback WARRICK DUNN broke the school touchdown record.

Dunn ran 11 times for 67 yards and caught five passes for 137 yards, including a spectacular winding run for a touchdown on what started as a short flat pass. That score gave Florida State a 40-14 lead in the third period and sent the regulars to the bench.

Dunn needs four touchdowns in Florida State's final two games to equal the ACC career mark set by North Carolina State's Ted Brown.

Florida State's defense had control of the game in the first half, but Southern Miss managed to keep the game close by capitalizing on three first-half turnovers by Florida State quarterback Thad Busby.

Southern Miss (8-3) was held to seven first downs and 95 yards offense, including a minus-13 yards rushing.

It looked for awhile like Florida State might be in for a battle.

Southern Mississippi's Harold Shaw scored on a 5-yard pass from Lee Roberts to give the Golden Eagles a 7-0 lead just 1:40 into the game.

Clemson runs over Wolfpack

CLEMSON, S.C. — Terry Allen never did it. Neither did Kevin Mack, Terrance Flagler or any other member of an All-Pro team of runners who moved from Clemson to the NFL.

Only Raymond Priestner has had two straight seasons with more than 1,000 yards. He gained 146 yards Saturday in Clemson's 40-17 victory over North Carolina State and with 1,057 yards this year, stands alone among Death Valley runners.

"I'm just doing my job but it's kind of special too," said Priestner, a junior who led the Atlantic Coast Conference with 1,322 yards last season. "I can feel it because emotions on our team are really high right now and that just added to a positive situation."

Clemson (7-3, 6-2) won its fifth straight game and locked up a bowl berth, most likely the Peach Bowl on Dec. 28 against a Southeastern Conference opponent.

Redskins claim 1st in East as defense denies Eagles

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PHILADELPHIA — It was redemption time for the Washington Redskins' much-maligned defense.

Two impressive fourth-quarter defensive stands, and scores on four straight possessions in the middle of the game helped the Redskins claim first place in the NFC East with a 26-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles on Sunday.

Linebacker Ken Harvey, who had a fumble recovery and two sacks, said the defensive players were eager to erase the sting of two straight losses in which Washington surrendered 75 points and 1,091 yards.

"Off of last week's loss (a 37-34 overtime defeat to Arizona), we had to learn a little something," Harvey said. "This time when the opportunity was there, we took advantage of it."

Washington (8-3) took an early 10-0 lead and never trailed, although the Eagles (7-4) crept back in the game and had two late chances to score the potential game-winning points.

Trailing 23-21, Philadelphia got the ball back at its 17 with 4:40 to play, but the Redskins forced an impressive three-and-out that ended with the Eagles punting on fourth-and-25 at their own 2.

On first down, Rich Owens stopped Watters for an 8-yard loss. On second down, Harvey sacked Ty Detmer for a 7-yard loss that was close to being a safety.

"We tackled Watters for a loss, and that sets a tempo," Redskins coach Norv Turner said. "Our guys got revved up."

After Scott Blanton's fourth field goal increased the Redskins' lead to five, the Eagles got the ball with 1:15 to play and drove 52 yards to get a first down on the Washington 20 with 24 seconds to play.

The Redskins' secondary forced four straight incompletions to seal the victory.

"We had four good shots," wide receiver Irving Fryar said. "We just didn't come up with it."

Along with Blanton's four field goals, Gus Frerotte threw two touchdown passes to Jamie Asher as the Redskins broke a two-game losing streak, beat Philadelphia for the first time in nine meetings and gave Turner his first November win in nine games as Washington's coach.

Washington took control of the game by scoring on its last two possessions of the first half and its first two possessions of the second half.

The Redskins, who were up 13-7 at the half, padded the lead on the third quarter's first drive.

Frerotte fumbled on the drive's first play, but Joe Patton recovered for Washington. The Redskins then moved 69 yards, and Frerotte found Asher for his second touchdown catch, a 7-yarder. Asher dropped a sure touchdown pass on the play before.

Blanton's third field goal, a 30-yarder in the third quarter, put the Redskins ahead 23-14 late in the third quarter.

Charlie Garner sparked the Eagles offense on its first drive of the second half. He carried the ball three times for 41 yards during a 78-yard drive. Detmer found Chris T. Jones for a 13-yard touchdown pass that put the Washington lead to 20-14.

Volleyball splits weekend to close conference slate

STAFF REPORT

The North Carolina volleyball team ended its conference slate with a weekend split against Virginia and Maryland, decimating the Cavaliers 15-3, 15-11, 10-15, 15-6 in Charlottesville, Va., on Friday before losing to the powerhouse Terrapins 15-12, 15-11, 15-7 in College Park, Md., on Saturday.

Against Maryland (23-4, 16-0 in the ACC), the Tar Heels (19-11, 9-7) dropped the first game and watched a chance to win the next one slip away as the Terps rallied from 11-5 down to take the second game.

Sophomore Maya Starks was the only Tar Heel to register a double-digit kill total with 12, while Maryland was paced by Elizabeth Efron (16 kills), Daune Koester and Candace Seitz (14 kills each). Middle hitter Amber Willey had 11 digs and two block solos for UNC.

In the match with Virginia (23-10, 6-9), freshman outside hitter Tori Seibert and junior outside hitter Lori Carlson led the way for the Tar Heels with 15 kills apiece. The Cavs rallied to win the third game after dropping the first two, but Carlson made the difference in the fourth game, registering five of her kills in the frame to seal the win. UVA's Claire Polga paced all players with 18 kills.

IRONICALLY, THE TIME TO START SAVING FOR RETIREMENT IS WHEN IT LOOKS LIKE YOU CAN LEAST AFFORD IT.

Can't afford to save for retirement? The truth is, you can't afford not to. Not when you realize that your retirement can last 20 to 30 years or more. You'll want to live at least as comfortably then as you do now. And that takes planning.

By starting to save now, you can take advantage of tax deferral and give your money time to compound and grow. Consider this: Set aside just $100 each month beginning at age 30 and you can accumulate over $172,109* by the time you reach age 65. But wait ten years and you'll have to budget $219 each month to reach the same goal.

Even if you're not counting the years to retirement, you can count on TIAA-CREF to help you build the future you deserve — with flexible retirement and tax-deferred annuity plans, a diverse portfolio of investment choices, and a record of personal service that spans 75 years.

Over 1.8 million people in education and research put TIAA-CREF at the top of their list for retirement planning. Why not join them?

Call today and learn how simple it is to build a secure tomorrow when you have time and TIAA-CREF working on your side.
