lifts baseball over UNC-W

Using a Richie Grimsley home run in the top of the ninth inning, the North Carolina baseball team rallied for a 8-7 road win over UNC-Wilmington at Brooks Field on Wednesday.

UNC-W took control early, scoring these runs in the bottom of the Grand of the control of the grand of the state of three runs in the bottom of the first and two more in the fifth to take a 5-1 lead. But the Tar Heels (22-16) answered, scoring runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings and eventually taking a 7-5

In that span, North Carolina's softball team has done a 180-degree turnaround.

Last year at this time UNC (17-26, 2-4 in the ACC) was wrapping up the conference regular season championship and a 12th winning season in 13 tries. This year's team will almost certainly be the second Tar Heel softball squad to finish under the .500 mark, and any thoughts of duplicating last year's title

The Tar Heels will play their last conference game prior to the ACC tournament today at 2 p.m. at Finley Field, against Florida State (31-14-1, 5-1).

the ACC tournament today at 2 p.m. at Finley Field, against Florida State (31-14-1, 5-1).

The road to this year's ACC Tournament title will likely run straight through the Seminoles, who are on course to win the ACC regular season title. FSU has cruised through the ACC portion of its schedule, winning its first five conference games before dropping a 6-3 decision to Virginia on April 6.

The Seminoles will provide a stern test, one UNC needs to pass to gain confidence going into the Tar Heel Invitational (April 11-13) and the ACC tournament (April 17-19).

Though FSU poses one of the more potent offenses that UNC pitchers Brandy Arthur and Jen Klesaris have faced this season, pitching has led FSU to the majority of its 31 wins.

Leading the way all season has been Seminole hurler Kristy Fuentes, one of the premiere pitchers in the ACC. Fuentes has dominated opponents to the tune of a 21-6 record and 1.19 ERA, holding foes to a .194 batting average against her. Last weekend she threw a perfect game against Virginia, her second no-hitter of the year.

UNC has dropped three of its last four, with its offense

UNC has dropped three of its last four, with its offense scoring a paltry eight runs. The Tar Heels must produce to compete with the Seminoles, whose offense is averaging near-advantage in a three-run seventh inning.

The Seahawks (19-21) knotted the score at 7 in the bottom of the eighth, setting up Grimsley's game-winner.

Freshman Brian Roberts turned in a 2-of-3 performance with two runs scored and four stolen bases to lead the Tar Heels at the plate.

Sophomore pitcher Michael Horney (2-1) claimed the win, scattering three hits and collecting two strikeouts over the final three innings.

STAFF AND WIRE REPORT

North Carolina landed a nationally touted recruit as the school announced Wednesday guard Nikki Teasley has signed to play for the Tar Heels. Teasley, of Frederick, Md., averaged 27.1 points, 9.3 rebounds and 8.3 assists per game as a senior at St. John's at Prospect Hall high school. Teasley, rated the No. 1 recruit in the nation by Blue Star magazine, was named The Associated Press All-Star Player of the Year as a junior.

Teasley chose North Carolina over

Virginia and Penn State.
"We're honored to have such an outstanding student-athlete join us at North Carolina," coach Sylvia Hatchell said. "Nikki will fit in well with our program, our coaches and our playing style. ... Nikki's the kind of player who can take women's basketball to another level."

Other players in the North Carolina recruiting class include Juana Brown of Memphis, Tenn., and LaQuanda Barksdale of Winston-Salem.

The Tar Heels are coming off a sea-son in which they won the ACC regular-season and tournament titles before falling in the NCAA East Regional
