

Earey leads Tar Heels to win Smith Center plays host to high school showdown

SPORTS BRIEFS

UNC recruits earn places on prep All-America team

Two of North Carolina's men's basketball recruits were named to the McDonald's High School All-Americans list.

Kris Lang, of Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia, and Jason Capel, of St. John's Prospect Hall in Frederick, Md., both graced the list.

Also on the list is Ronald Curry of Hampton (Virginia) High School. Curry verbally committed to Virginia to play football in the fall, but has since shown interest in playing basketball at UNC.

More than 97 percent of the program's participants have gone on to play Div. I basketball, and more than 100 moved on to the NBA.

Duke looks close to home for new athletic director

DURHAM — Joe Alleva, who has served as Duke's associate athletic director since 1987, was named athletic director on Wednesday.

He succeeds Tom Butters, 59, who announced in September that he would retire by June.

Duke President Nan O. Keohane said she will take Alleva's appointment to Duke's Board of Trustees for formal approval at its meeting on Friday.

Alleva, a 44-year-old native of Suffern, N.Y., joined the Duke athletics staff in 1980 and was named assistant athletic director in July 1986. As associate athletic director, Alleva has been responsible for managing the athletic department's budget.

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

STAFF REPORT

The North Carolina baseball team improved to 6-4 on the season with an 8-3 victory at Campbell on Wednesday.

The teams were tied at three going into the eighth inning when second baseman Rob Miano belted a three-run dinger off Camel pitcher Ray Greene.

The homer was Miano's first of the season.

Miano's blast sparked a five-run tear in the top of the inning. Greene gave up five runs on three hits and a walk in only one-third of an inning.

Pitcher Ryan Earey earned his first win of the season in 2 1/3 innings of relief.

Earey started the game at third base before coming on for Richie Grimsley in the seventh. Earey allowed only two hits while striking out four batters and walking one.

STAFF REPORT

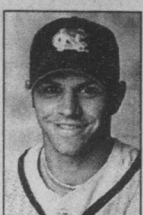

Earey helped his own cause at the plate with a 3-for-4 performance with one RBI and one run scored.

Parts of the game were a bit sloppy, as both teams committed four errors.

Camel first baseman Mike Corbett had three of Campbell's errors, while Tar Heel Brian Roberts committed two errors from the shortstop position.

Both teams struggled to bring men home, as UNC left eight men on base. The Camels stranded 10.

Campbell pitcher Eric Snover kept

UNC shortstop BRIAN ROBERTS went 1 for 3 with two runs scored against Campbell on Wednesday.

the Tar Heels' bats in check at the beginning of the game, striking out nine while surrendering only five hits.

Tar Heels Jarrett Shearin, Mike Bynum and Jay Madeira each struck out three times on the day.

Bynum went 0 for 5 against the Camel hurlers.

The Camels gave up only three runs on five hits before Greene gave up Miano's shot.

The Tar Heels have a day to rest before starting a three-game set with George Mason on Friday. The game starts at 3 p.m. at Boshamer Stadium.

UNC sweeps Camels in doubleheader

The North Carolina softball team swept a doubleheader against Campbell at the Eakes Athletic Complex in Buies Creek on Wednesday.

The Tar Heels (6-6) won the first game 2-1 in eight innings and won the second game 2-1.

UNC's Colleen Lefferts bunted Beth Olen home in the top of the eighth inning in game one to break the 1-1 tie. Freshman Michelle Semmes led UNC with a 2-for-3 performance at the plate and a double.

In the nightcap, Campbell took a 1-0 lead in the first inning. But the Tar Heels came back in the fourth when Lefferts scored on a passed ball and Semmes came across on a Carrie Bates ground-out to give the Tar Heels the win.
