

Tar Heel Trio Haunts Demon Deacs

With 20 minutes to play, UNC forward Kim Patrick converted a diving header into the Tar Heels' first goal.

By KELLY LUSK
Staff Writer

When North Carolina's shots started finding the back of the net, it might as well have been a roll call of the women's soccer team's top-three goal scorers.

After 64 scoreless minutes, third-ranked UNC exploded for three goals from forwards Kim Patrick, Meredith Florance and Anne Remy to defeat No. 16 Wake Forest 4-0 on Sunday at Fetzer Field.

Patrick, Florance and Remy have scored more than half of North Carolina's goals this season to rank first, second and third on the team, respectively.

Patrick started the Tar Heel scoring spree at 64:49. Junior Tina Murphy took two consecutive shots that were deflected by Demon Deacon goalkeeper Erin Regan. While the second deflection was still in the air, Patrick converted a diving header to give North Carolina (16-2, 7-0 in the ACC) the lead.

"I watched the ball bounce off of everyone," Patrick said. "I was determined to get it in. Tina really kept fighting and kept attacking it, which really helped me."

Ten minutes later, Florance, who is the second leading scorer on the team with 10 goals, lofted a ball from 15 yards out that beat Regan to put the Tar Heels ahead by two.

Sophomore Anne Remy notched a goal and an assist for the third consecutive game in UNC's 4-0 victory.

The scoring barrage continued when Remy dribbled through the Demon Deacon defense to bang in an unassisted goal, her ninth of the season, at 78:14. Remy has produced a goal and an assist in each of the last three games.

"With Meredith and Anne's goals, they're goals of a personality," UNC coach Anson Dorrance said. "You want the kind of players, and obviously we've got one of the greatest ever in Mia Hamm, that gets the ball, curves up a player on her own and sticks it. That's what Meredith and Anne did."

Freshman defender Leslie Gaston received a Remy pass and scored from 13 yards out to notch her second goal of the season and close out the Tar Heel scoring.

"I was very excited. I certainly didn't expect it," Gaston said.

The first half of the contest looked grim for North Carolina. The Tar Heels outshot Wake Forest 11-3, but neither team could put the ball into the net.

Regan made seven saves for the Demon Deacons.

"We were scrambling," Dorrance said. "Wake plays a very good possession game coming out of their defensive third and through the midfield. Their goalkeeper is one of the best in the conference."

But in a span of 15 minutes, UNC put any hopes Wake Forest (13-5, 4-3) had of giving the Tar Heels their first defeat in the ACC since 1994 in the toilet.

"The first half was frustrating," Patrick said. "Once we got that first goal, our team always opens up."

UNC ended its regular season undefeated in the ACC. The Tar Heels will enter the ACC tournament at Fetzer Field on Thursday as the top seed against Florida State.

Said Dorrance, "We came out of this game a little healthier, which excites us because we're going to need every available body for the ACC tournament."

The Sports Editor can be reached at sports@unc.edu.

Field Hockey Gets 2 Wins On Road Trip to Virginia

this weekend
ON THE ROAD

North Carolina's field hockey squad captured two wins this weekend against William & Mary and seventh-ranked Old Dominion.

Sunday against William & Mary, No. 6 UNC (15-4) used two second-half goals to defeat the Indians. Sophomore Katie McDonald scored her third goal of the season four minutes into the second half. Forward Kristen McCann added the Tar Heels' second point with an unassisted goal with 20:20 left in the game.

Against the Monarchs on Saturday, the Tar Heels needed a little more help from a different source. Sweeper Jana Toepel, who did not play when the Tar Heels beat ODU 1-0 on Sept. 18, was responsible for both goals in UNC's 2-1 overtime victory.

Old Dominion scored four minutes into the first half on Marina DiGiacomo's shot. Toepel tied the game with 20 minutes left in the first half.

On the Tar Heels' fifth penalty corner of overtime, Toepel was able to score again, giving UNC the victory at Foreman Field.

The Tar Heels next play at 4 p.m. Friday in the ACC Tournament in Winston-Salem when they face the winner of Duke and Virginia.

Women's Golf Places 8th at Tourney

The North Carolina women's golf team took eighth place at the Furman Invitational on Sunday. Sophomore Heather Angell led the Tar Heels with an 11-over-par 225 to finish in eighth place individually.

The Tar Heels fired a three-round total of 303 to finish 11 shots back of tournament champion Wake Forest.

UNC senior Marcy Newton shot a final-round score of 76 to finish second on the Tar Heel squad and 21st individually at 231.

From Staff Reports

Paid Political Advertisement

"People listen when Jim Ward talks in his calm and quiet way about environmental protection and community planning. Jim is the kind of person we need on the Town Council."

David R. Godschalk
UNC-CH Professor, City and Regional Planning Department

- ◆ Curator/Environmental Educator in the North Carolina Botanical Garden since 1975
- ◆ Chapel Hill Parks & Recreation Commission, Chair
- ◆ Chapel Hill-UNC Land Use Planning Panel, Environmental Chair
- ◆ Shaping Orange County's Future, Exec. Committee
- ◆ New Hope Chapter - National Audubon Society, President
- ◆ Chapel Hill Comprehensive Plan Work Group

JIM WARD for COUNCIL

paid for by James L. Ward for Town Council

Do You Have A Good (or Bad) Dating Story?

We are looking for the best & worst dating stories for our 1st ever DTH "Dating on the Hill" issue. Coming out Nov. 16.

- 50 words or less-

Please e-mail your stories to: lizard@unc.edu

Deadline: Friday, Nov. 5

STUDENT TRAVEL

Planning Trips for Generations X, Y, and Z.

(800) 777-0112

STA TRAVEL
We've Been There.

www.statravel.com

www.lehman.com

Lehman Brothers Finance Division

cordially invites undergraduates to attend a presentation on career opportunities in

Financial Control & Analysis, Treasury and Tax

Wednesday, November 3rd

7 - 9 PM

Chancellor East
Carolina Inn

LEHMAN BROTHERS