His settlement with N.C. State calls for the Wolfpack to pay the balance of his annual salary that is not paid by UNC, which next year is $31,000. O'Cain, who compiled a 41-40 overall record as head coach of the Wolfpack, is also entitled to a lump sum of $190,000 and can continue driving a car provided by N.C. State until May 30.

O'Cain said that although he is changing sides in a heated rivalry, his loyalty should not be questioned by fans

"We made some mistakes that were costly and that we'll learn from." For now, UNC will have to learn to play without Teasley, who averaged 14.0 points a game and led the squad in assists and steals.

The Tar Heel offense struggled in her absence. UNC connected on 17 of 60 shots in the contest.

Freshman Coretta Brown started in Teasley's place and notched 11 points.

"Openly, everybody said that we're going to put this behind us and move on, but I don't know what everybody else is thinking," Barksdale said.

She said the situation was the furthest thing from her mind, and it showed. Barksdale poured in a game-high 22 points and 13 rebounds. She scored 11 of North Carolina's first 14 points to keep the Tar Heels in the game.
