

NICOLE- I don't know how much longer I can take it. You make everything so difficult. I'm always sleepy from you keeping me awake all night, everynight. I can't get any work done, because all I do is think about you. I'm still broke from that rock on your left hand. I don't think I'm going to be able to stay with you any longer than forever. Jeff PS: Count how many words are in this letter before the PS.

CAROLINA TEACHING FELLOWS- It's been a pleasure working with you all! You are a great group of "Future Teachers of North Carolina!" There is no other group like you in all 14 institutions of higher learning with a TF program. You are SPECIAL and UNIQUE! Don't ever change! Teaching Fellows Staff

DEAR ELIZABETH, BENEATH the Bell Tower's moon- driven shadow, with that fateful Autumn night kiss./ We began three and a half years afflicted with love's unmistakable bliss./ Although our time on the Hill is now nearing its final hour./ We will take with us forever the fiery feelings from under that red- brick tower./ On this Valentine's Day, I wish to use this setting/ To remind you how much I love you and can't wait for our summer wedding. Love Always, Will

TO THE LOVELY DTH Ladies- Chrissy, Janet, Penny, Lisa, Laurie, Melanie, Courtney, Liz, Andrea, Catherine, Kelly, Jenn, Katelyn, Jackie, Skye and Julie- Roses are Red/ Violets are Blue/ I'm so glad I work with you!! Happy V-Day- Katie

To the princess, from the clown:/ I envy the air which caresses your hair and leaves strands of light to be baptized there./ I wish I were the sun:/ for you I would rise, / and let my rays make love with the dreams in your eyes.

THE GIRLS OF B-3 are so hot. KK, JS, MP, and KM... make my Valentine's dreams come true. -Leslie

WHY DO I love you?/ Let me count the ways./ Your arms like the oak,/ are firm and strong;/ Your eyes like coals,/ are dark and warm;/ your mustache so soft,/ it feels like pine;/ your touch so cool,/ it melts my spine./ Or is it you, dear,/ melting?/ Love./ Snowman's widow

I DREAD THE duty/ of letting you go/ to my replacement/ of proper race and creed./ who deserves your devotion/ only after you've found him./ Don't let fear of heartache/ prevent our fleeting joys./ for each moment, set in memory./ is as permanent/ as our lives will ever be./ and, with an expression/ of the bittersweet nostalgia/ for something lovely and loved./ I have one final plea-/ Hurry and kiss me, don't be wishy-washy./ Life's just a second before natsukashi./ I will love you always, but let me love you now.

Summer reunited casual friends/ Mutual attraction developed/ One week was incredible/ Opportunities created distance/ Together again, for a while/ Couldn't resist the temptation/ How did it end before it really began?/ Even when we fit together like puzzle pieces?/ Simple solution. If you won't be my valentine./ Could we at least remain friends?

DREW, THANK YOU!/ Thank you for standing by me when I doubted/ My love for you and almost chose another./ Thank you for helping me understand my mistake/ And for loving me through it all./ Thank you for holding on when I thought/ My love for you was gone./ Thank you for making me realize that the/ Fire between us has not died./ Thank you for showing me that it still burns/ Stronger than ever-searing all doubt into oblivion/ Thank you most of all for letting me know you will always be/ My light, my love, my best friend and my Savior.

For Julie- girl,
Beautiful, in every way,
Enticing, my senses;
Magnificence, surrounds you;
Incredible, you are;
Nothing, can compare;
Everlasting, my love for you.
Love, Billy- Bobby

ON THIS DAY, my heart will neglect the rest of the world. I'll place it in your hands (The Safest Place I Know). A day strictly mental and physical. Your words will be my card. Your presence will be my flowers and balloons. Your kisses will be my candy and each second of our night will be the colorful reflections of light shining off of the diamond created and shaped by our happiness.
