

The Daily Tar Heel's 10th Annual Valentine's Day Contest

Winners

1 First Place

Russet leaves on a September breeze.
Sunlight streams through naked trees.

A screech of tires, a hiss of brakes
The U-bus stops - the driver waits.

I shared a laugh and a smile,
with the stranger across the aisle.

A lesson learned, one golden day, that love may lie, a U-bus away.

2 Second Place

Dear Elizabeth,

Beneath the Bell Tower's moon-driven shadow, with that fateful Autumn night kiss,
We began three and a half years afflicted with love's unmistakable bliss.

Although our time on the Hill is now nearing its final hour,
We will take with us forever the fiery feelings from under that red-brick tower.

On this Valentine's Day, I wish to use this setting To remind you how much I love you and can't wait for our summer wedding.

Love Always,
Will
