

Boundless Talent

North Carolina outfielder Tyrell Godwin (left) has drawn criticism from "baseball experts" for his lack of instincts for the game. Two things without question, however, are his raw ability and potential to become a star. Pages 8 and 9

FEATURES

Max-ing Out

Golfer Max Harris came to UNC with no knowledge about the school. He'll leave after this year knowing he is among the nation's best players. Page 7

Climbing the Ladder

Junior Joy Ganes wants to move up, whether it's in the air as she clears the high-jump bar or off the track in her eternal quest to find new challenges. Page 13

Well-Armed for 2000?

Inside Spring Sports 2000

Women's Lacrosse 4

UNC remains confident as it looks to regroup after falling short of its expectations in 1999.

Men's Lacrosse 5

The Tar Heels try to overcome past tragedies and send Coach Dave Klarmann out a winner.

Women's Golf 6

Coach Sally Austin's Tar Heels are improving in their effort to challenge Duke in the ACC.

Men's Golf 7

UNC is solid at the top with Max Harris and Paul Daniel as it makes a run for the NCAAs.

Men's Tennis 10

With lessons from last season learned, the Tar Heels strive for improvement.

Women's Tennis 11

Togetherness, depth and a blend of youth with experience are keys for the Tar Heels.

Men's Track and Field 12

UNC's strong hurdlers and field-event athletes try to shock the ACC - again.

Women's Track and Field 13

The Tar Heels are out for revenge after losing the ACC title for the first time in eight years.

Rowing 14

Coach Joel Furtek leads the Tar Heels into their third season as a varsity sport.

Softball 15

UNC has the pitching depth that it lacked in 1999 and returns its top five hitters.
