hurt in part by Kris Lang's three fouls.

The Tar Heels got their act together in the second stanza, though. Lang picked up his fourth foul 55 seconds into the half, ut he stayed in the game and hit back-to-back buckets in the next 49 seconds. But Lang didn't stick around too much longer. He was whistled for his fifth foul with 14:27 left to play. WOMEN'S BASKETBALL share to keep the Tar Heels from run-ning sprints, too. The 6-1 reserve grabbed a career-high eight boards and scored 11 points in 17 minutes of action. Six Tar Heels scored in double figures, including the remainder of the "Big Three." Barksdale finished with 11 points and seven boards while Teasley led the and seven boards, while Teasley led the team with 16 points and six assists.

Duke's Krista Gingrich led all scorers with 23 points for the rival Blue Devils.

Heels began hoisting up 3s – 11 of their 15 second-half makes came in the lane.

UNC center Brendan Haywood, who Teasley, who watched her teammates get trounced 101-58 in Durham on Jan. 27, was particularly pleased with the redemption the victory provided.

"It was real big," said Maryland cen-Butke) and see my team get beat like that and not be able to do anything about it."

But the win had larger implications than revenge—it helped UNC's case for a spot in the NCAA tournament. Hatchell said the NCAA had informed her that when it gave out bids, Teasley's seven-game absence would be treated

A World of RESEARCH

Emory, renowned as a premier research institution, is seeking candidates for a number of exciting research opportunities with the School of Public Health, the School of Medicine, Yerkes Primate Center and Emory College. Among our extensive research facilities are the newly renovated Woodruff Memorial Research Building, the state-of-the-art Rollins Research Center, the Winship Cancer Institute, the Biomedical/Dental Building and the recently completed Yerkes Vaccine Research Center. Emory's newest research building, the Whitehead Research Building, is scheduled for completion in 2001 and will be among the largest buildings on campus. In 1998-99, the school received $142.8 million in research funding, ranking us 21st among American medical schools for federal research expenditures.

finished with 17 rebounds and nine ter Lonny Baxter, who was limited to seven points in 18 minutes because of his own foul problems. "He was a key points, got all four of his second-half oints via putbacks in the paint.

But he was also victimized by an unlikely source who helped the Terps establish a low-post presence of their own.

Junior Mike Mardesich came off the bench and provided the scoring threat the Terps needed with Baxter in foul translab. Puriors 2,525 georgie is the second trouble. During a 2:52 span in the sec-ond half, he made two jump hooks and one mid-range jumper over Haywood. Mardesich hit 5-of-6 shots in the con-the like a key player's injury would.

"They're definitely an NCAA team," Duke coach Gail Goestenkors said.
"They're one of the top teams in the country and deserve to be in the tournament.
