

Favorite Place to get your Java

Winner: Caribou Coffee

Caribou wins it again! Caribou Coffee on West Franklin Street serves up your favorite coffee drinks and snacks in a great study atmosphere. With cozy couches and internet hook-ups, Caribou is the hands down hang-out spot even if you're not into caffeine. Their outdoor seating is perfect for people-watching on sunny spring days.

Best Place for a Healthy Meal

Winner: Cosmic Cantina

Honorable Mention: Oasis Deli

Even though Cosmic has been in town less than a year, they have become UNC's top choice for a healthy low-cost lunch or dinner. All their ingredients are fresh daily and include low fat options like black bean or veggie burritos. Best of all, they're open until 4am for guilt-free late-night cravings.

Best Ethnic Restaurant

Winner: 35 Chinese

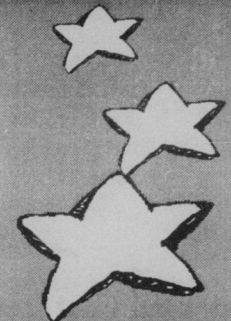

Honorable Mention: Bandido's Mexican Cafe

Granville residents are lucky to be so close to University Square (and it's just a short walk for the rest of us). Grab a plate and enjoy the best Chinese buffet in town. The options are endless and desserts are included in the low price! Don't forget your UNC One Card for $1 off student discount.

Best Burger

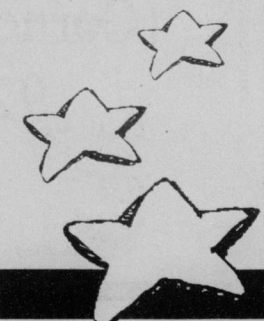

Winner: Hector's

Whether it's the way they sling your pita across the grill or how you can request anything on top of your burger, Hector's has been a favorite among Chapel Hill residents for years. Second-place was too close to call. Our readers also love burgers from Carolina Brewery, Woody's, Henderson Street, and Sutton's.
