

Best Restaurant to Impress a First DateWinner: 411 West

For the fourth year in a row, 411 rightfully claims this category. The atmosphere and the menu are conversation pieces in themselves. (This is also a great place to take your parents when they're in town.)

Best Low Cost LunchWinner: Cosmic Cantina

Newcomer Cosmic Cantina finally upset Taco Bell in this category. After your first trip, you'll just keep going back. Not only are the options healthy and homemade, but the portions are huge!

Best Place to Shop for UNC StuffWinner: Student Stores*Honorable Mention: Shrunken Head

Right in the heart of campus, students conveniently stock up on UNC gear at Student Stores. They've got everything from clothing to dorm room decorations that attract shoppers all year long. It's a great place to go when your parents are in town to load up on souvenirs.

Best Place to ShopWinner: The Gap*Honorable Mentions: Online and anywhere on Franklin Street

Gap makes even the most classic fashions hip again by showcasing khakis and button-downs in practically every entertainment medium you can imagine. Whatever is displayed in their window usually ends up on co-eds all across campus within days.

Best Delivered Meal*Winner: Gumby's*Honorable Mentions: Papa Johns and Jimmy Johns

Pokey Stix and ranch dip. Or your favorite pizza for cheap. UNC students are loyal to Gumby's.
