

Favorite Spring Break Destination

Winner: Key West, Florida

Here is the perfect Spring Break equation: you + all of your close friends + a tropical beach = (you fill in the blank).

This year's most popular Spring Break destination was Key West. Filled with fun, sun, gorgeous bodies, and promising hook-ups, what more could UNC students ask for?

For those who have been there and done that (Florida, that is) Cancun was voted the second favorite spot for students. Those students who can't afford to run for the border, however, can enjoy a relatively inexpensive trip to Disney World, which took third place this year—after all, what better place to suspend all adult responsibility for some good, clean fun?

Best Class to do Crossword in

Winner: Drama 16

Students in Drama 16, and practically any other drama class, are apparently good actors. It takes talent pretending to pay attention to a lecture when actually busy filling in the boxes of The Daily Tar Heel crossword puzzle.

Though UNC drama classes had the most votes, Sociology 15 and Geology 11 classes were also popular answers.

Best Drinking Game

Winner: Asshole

Taking the prize for the third year, Asshole lovers can toast to another victory. This time-honored game was voted best drinking game at UNC.

The game begins with players tossing down cards, aiming to beat the face value of their opponents' cards. The person with the upper hand is then responsible for ordering the other players to take a shot in some bizarre, twisted manner.

After a few rounds go by, buzzes become embarrassingly evident.

Other buzz hits, taking top honors this year, were Quarters, Kings, Drunk Driver, and Tip the Cup.
