

Favorite place to see a band

Winner: Cat's Cradle

The smoky, dark chamber that is Cat's Cradle reigns again as the best place to enjoy your favorite music in Chapel Hill. Located on Main Street in Carrboro, Cat's Cradle, one of the best rock clubs in the Mid-Atlantic, pulls in both nationally known groups and local bands just getting their start in Chapel Hill. This year, one of the most talked about shows at the Cradle was the Smashing Pumpkins concert, which sold out immediately. Also, big names like Paula Cole, the Connells, and Cravin' Melon graced the stage, as well as bands on the rise like the Funky Meters and Bio Ritmo.

Favorite Movie in 1999

Winner: American Beauty

Look between the perfectly painted boards of suburbia's white picket fences to find the true American Beauty. UNC-CH's favorite movie of the year takes the cliché of the perfect nuclear family and distorts it into a twisted nightmare of audacious desires and repressed needs. With a star-studded cast including Kevin Spacey and Annette Bening, and a plot that contains a slew of shocking vices, no wonder American Beauty ranks #1 in entertainment value.

Best place to see an arthouse flick

Winner: Carolina Theatre

It may only have one theatre, but the Carolina Theatre compensates for its small size with its consistent showing of arthouse cinema. Close to campus and always art-conscious in the films it shows, the Carolina Theatre is your favorite place to go catch the latest independent, underground, controversial, or foreign film.

DO YOUR OWN THINKING
Academia encourages college students to "Think for yourselves." Are college students intellectually courageous enough to consider for themselves what the Bible teaches? God says, "Come now, and let us reason together..." Isaiah 1:18.
