Women's Lacrosse Stuns No. 3 Virginia

The North Carolina women's lacrosse team went on a 7-1 scoring run in the final 23:35 of Saturday's game to pull off a 12-5 upset win against No. 3 Virginia at the University Hall Turf Field in Charlottesville, Va.

Sophomore Kellie Thompson tied the game with 22:52 left in the first half, and then 2:03 later, junior midfielder Amy Havrilla scored the first of her three goals to put the Tar Heels (6-2, 2-0 in the ACC) up for good.

The Cavaliers (6-2, 0-2) scored with 16:01 left to cut the deficit to 7-5, but UNC ran off five consecutive goals, including four in the last 10 minutes

Havrilla scored three goals to lead the Tar Heels, while freshman midfielder Betsy Gaines had two goals and one assist.

Rowers Fall to Top Teams

The North Carolina women's crew team continued its 2000 campaign with mixed results Saturday on Lake Wheeler in the ACC/Big Ten Double

In the morning race, the Tar Heels' varsity boat finished at 6:51.65, more than 17 seconds behind Michigan

In the afternoon race, UNC fell to Ohio State by a 10-second margin.

"It was a challenge going against two top teams," UNC coach Joel Furtek said.
"Michigan and Ohio State have a lot of speed, but we were able to apply the lessons we learned last week in California."

UNC Ties for 28th at Championships

Two North Carolina men's swimmers earned All-America honors Saturday night as the Tar Heels tied Iowa for 28th place in the 2000 NCAA Division I Men's Swimming & Diving Championships at the University of Minnesota Natatorium. The Tar Heels scored 13 team points and improved two spots from their 30th place finish of a year ago.

Freshman Sean Quinn earned first-team All-America honors in the 200meter breaststroke as he finished in eighth place with a career-best time of 2:11.75.

Junior Dave Slawinski merited honorable mention All-America honors as he finished 15th in the 200-meter breaststroke with a time of 2:14.35.

Freshman Stephen Mohr finished 27th in the 1500-meter freestyle with a time of 15:26.81.

Softball Eliminated at Buzz Classic

The North Carolina softball team advanced to the single elimination bracket play at the Buzz Classic 2000,

Illinois-Chicago scored six unan swered runs to jump out to a big lead. The Tar Heels got on the scoreboard in the sixth when Michelle Semmes singled home senior Jen Klesaris. Natalie Anter followed with a two-run home run, but the Tar Heels were unable to put any more runs on the scoreboard. UNC advanced to play UNC advanced to play Illinois-Chicago by defeating Virginia Tech and

The Tar Heels shut out the Hokies 5-0 and knocked off Georgia State 3-2.

Beth Olen was 2-for-3 with two doubles against Virginia Tech.

The Tar Heels were held hitless against Georgia State until the seventh inning, when Semmes hit a single. Anter followed that up with a single and Kelly Ramsey followed with a three-run home run to win the game for UNC

BASEBALL

"Ryan was really good today," Fox said Saturday. "We needed a good outing from a starting pitcher. He gave us a chance just to peck away and get a little bit of a lead and hang in there." The Tar Heels built that lead early, scoring single runs in the first two innings. Outfielders Tyrell Godwin and annings. Outnieders Tyreit Godwin and Adam Greenberg both enjoyed strong days at the plate, each going 4-for-4.

But, like in Sunday's game, the work on the hill was what stood out for UNC.

"The last two games have been brilliant," said Greenberg, who extended his hitting streak to 20 games with two singles Sunday. "If the starting pitching keeps us in the game, chances are we're going to win because we've got the bats. The games previous to that, it was tough being down right off the bat."

Friday's 14-11 loss illustrated that fact well. The Wolfpack jumped on UNC starter Eric Henderson early, touching the lefty for four first-inning runs and adding another in the second. Henderson (4-2) gave up seven earned runs in all during his rocky five innings.
