

Coastal's Mistakes Key UNC Win

Coastal Carolina committed five errors, stranded nine baserunners and was caught stealing five times Tuesday.

By MATT TERRY
Staff Writer

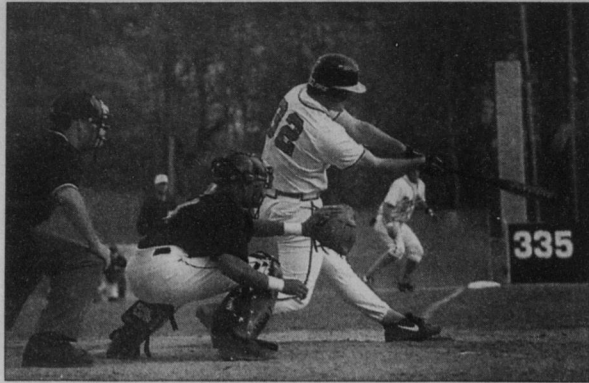

Anyone wondering whatever happened to the Bad News Bears should have been at Boshamer Stadium on Tuesday.

The Coastal Carolina baseball team played the part of the maligned little leaguers, donating eight walks and five errors to North Carolina's cause.

Eighth-ranked UNC turned CCU's gifts into six unearned runs and erased a 3-0 first inning deficit. The Tar Heels coasted to a 10-3 win.

"It was a bit of a strange game," North Carolina coach Mike Fox said.

UNC (25-5) used a bit of a strange play to tie the score 3-3 in the fourth. With one out and Matt McCay on second, Adam Greenberg flew to the right-field warning track. Mario Gianfortune's attempt to nab the tagging McCay took

DTH/KATE MELLNIK

UNC designated hitter Ryan Earey hits a sacrifice fly to center field in the eighth inning. Earey also doubled in the game.

so long to reach third base that McCay was able to score.

"I've never seen that happen," said Greenberg, who went 2-for-3 to extend his hitting streak to 21 games. "But Coach (Fox) is really aggressive. He saw a high throw and just waved him."

A single by Tyrell Godwin three batters later scored Dan Moylan with what proved to be the winning run.

While their offense wasn't at its best, the Tar Heels made the most of what they were given — and that was plenty.

Errors by Adam Kiem in the second inning and Justin Owens in the fourth gave UNC its first four runs. These unearned runs made Justin Sturge (1-1) a tough-luck loser.

"It wasn't pretty, but we got the job done," Greenberg said.

The Tar Heels' bullpen preserved the win after bailing out starter Scott Autrey. After throwing 11 straight balls to start the game, Autrey couldn't get out of the first inning. He gave up three runs on two singles and a walk.

Freshman Matt Tanner came on in relief and scattered four hits in four innings to pick up his first win as a Tar Heel. Eric Henderson pitched two scoreless innings, and Derrick DePriest went 2 1/3 innings to pick up his fifth save.

"Sometimes pitchers aren't on, and Scott just wasn't on," Tanner (1-1) said. "I got a chance to pick up Scott today."

However, Coastal didn't put up much of a fight. In addition to their defensive problems, the Chanticleers (21-9) stranded nine runners and lost five on attempted steals. Henderson picked off three runners in the sixth inning alone.

Henderson has picked off 12 runners in nine games this season.

"I said in the dugout that if he walks the next guy and picks him off, we'll have to call the Guinness Book of World Records," Fox said.

Farrell Earns ACC Honors

Freshman first baseman Sean Farrell was named ACC Player of the Week after going 10-for-19 with three home runs and 10 RBI last week. His .421 hitting performance paced the Tar Heels as they won four of six games, including two of three from N.C. State. The award is Farrell's second such honor this year.

The Sports Editor can be reached at sports@unc.edu.

UNC 10, Coastal Carolina 3

CC	300	000	000	-	3	11	5
UNC	020	202	04x	-	10	11	0

Pitching: CC — Sturge, Johnson (5), Rush (5), Sturkie (8).
UNC — Autrey, Jarrett (1), Henderson (5), DePriest (7).
Leading Hitters: CC — Murry 2-3 (2 RB), UNC — Greenberg 2-3 (2 SB, 2 RB), 2 runs scored, Godwin 2-5 (RB, 2B).

Smith Center to Host Fans for Final Four

From Staff Reports

Fans not heading to Indianapolis to watch the North Carolina men's basketball team this weekend can catch all the action at the Smith Center.

The Smith Center will show both Final Four games Saturday on a large projection screen with the audio provided by a radio feed from the Tar Heel Sports Network.

Doors open at 4:30 p.m. for students who show their UNC ONE Card. The general public will be admitted for free after 5 p.m.

The concession stands will be open, with all items going for half price. No outside food or drink will be allowed into the Smith Center.

Newton Wins Title as UNC Places 4th

BROWNS SUMMIT — The UNC women's golf team finished tied for fourth with a total score of 913 in the Bryan National Collegiate at Bryan Park Champions Course.

The Tar Heels finished behind Wake Forest (896), Indiana (901) and Mississippi State (906).

UNC senior Marcy Newton took the individual title by three strokes. Newton finished with a 3-over-par 219, while Florida State's Louise Wright finished second with a 222.

Other Tar Heel finishers were Abby Spector (227, 15th), Heather Angell

(230, tied for 20th) and Beth Lever (237, tied for 45th).

Harris Leads UNC Men's Golf

STATESBORO, Ga. — After completing the final 18 holes with a 2-under 70 on Sunday, UNC senior Max Harris finished alone in second place individually as the Tar Heel men's golf team finished in 10th place with a 873 total at the Schenkel E-Z-GO Invitational.

Defending national champion Georgia dominated the field, finishing at 829. Clemson (846) and N.C. State (852) placed second and third, respectively, in the three-round tournament.

Georgia's Bubba Watson won with a 13-under total of 203. Harris finished two strokes back with an 11-under 205.

Also competing for the Tar Heels were Ted Haley (221, tied for 43rd), Paul Daniel (225, tied for 54th), Rob Simmons (226, tied for 60th) and Brad Hyler (228, tied for 68th).

Tar Heel Fencers Excel at NCAAs

The UNC women's fencing team finished 11th at the NCAA Championships in Stanford, Calif., during the weekend.

The Tar Heels totaled 50 points, led by Kim Treiber, who placed second in the women's sabre. Teammate Meghan Neumann placed seventh in the event. Janeen Hicks was 23rd in the epee.

For the men, freshman Kraig Peterson finished seventh in the epee. Treiber, Neumann and Peterson earned All-America honors.

Southwick Golf Course

Open to the Public

Student Weekday Specials
$22 with cart/ $11 walking

All Winter Merchandise 25% OFF with purchase of 18 hole green fee

www.southwickgolf.com

CALL FOR TEE TIMES 942-0783

Directions: Take 54 West 20 miles to a stoplight. Take a left on Swepsonville Rd. and go 1 mile to a stop sign. Take a right on Swepsonville-Saxapahaw Rd. and go 1 1/2 miles. Take a left on Boywood Rd. We're 1/2 miles on the left.

3136 SOUTHWICK DRIVE • GRAHAM, NC 27253

EXPIRES 03/31/00 *VALID WITH STUDENT I.D.

ACADEMIC COUPLE SEEKS:

EGG DONOR 21-28

for East Coast clinic.

Right candidate compensated approx $12,000.

Outstanding SATs and academics, analytical, even-tempered, dark hair and eyes, olive complexion, even-featured, 5'7" or taller and lean/athletic build. Please describe motivation along with several [returnable] photos to:

PO Box 22 • West Kingston, RI • 02892

All serious replies answered.

CAROLINA CLASS OF 2000

Officially Recognized Student Organizations:

Nominations for Outstanding Senior & Favorite Faculty Awards

are due by 5pm, Thursday, March 30 in 01 Steele Building

(Nomination forms can be picked up at the Union Desk, George Watts Hall Alumni Center or in 01 Steele Building.)

The Freedom Forum presents

FIRST AMENDMENT DAYS

A CELEBRATION AND EXPLORATION OF THE FIRST AMENDMENT ON AMERICA'S CAMPUSES

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

A campus outreach program of The Freedom Forum and the First Amendment Center, the goal of First Amendment Days is to raise awareness of fundamental rights of free expression through education, information and entertainment. The First Amendment Center is funded by The Freedom Forum, a nonpartisan, international foundation dedicated to free press, free speech and free spirit for all people.

Thursday, March 30

THE RIGHT TO READ: THE FIRST AMENDMENT & BOOK CENSORSHIP 11AM-12:15PM

Participants: Karen Jo Gounaud, president and founder, Family Friendly Libraries
C. Eric Lincoln, author and professor emeritus, Duke University
Brian Sturm, assistant professor, School of Information and Library Science, UNC-Chapel Hill
Michael Willhoite, author of Daddy's Roommate

Moderator: Gene Policinski, director of media relations, First Amendment Center

Location: Wilson Library, Pleasants Room

BANNED BOOKS: CENSORSHIP IN LITERATURE All Day Thursday, Friday

An exhibit featuring an array of banned publications

Location: Davis Library

THE INTERNET & FREE SPEECH 12:30-1:45PM

Participants: Debashis Aikat, assistant professor, School of Journalism and Mass Communication, UNC-Chapel Hill
Joe Kadhi, professor, School of Journalism, University of Nairobi

Moderator: Adam Clayton Powell III, vice president of technology and programs, The Freedom Forum

Location: Carroll 33

UNHEARD VOICES: THE MINORITY PRESS & THE FIRST AMENDMENT 2-3:15PM

Participants: Félix Gutiérrez, senior vice president of The Freedom Forum
Chuck Stone, Walter Spearman professor, School of Journalism and Mass Communication, UNC-Chapel Hill, author, columnist and former senior editor, Philadelphia Daily News

Location: Hanes Art Center 121

FREEDOM SINGS 3:30-5PM

Locally and nationally known bands showcase censored songs, protest anthems and music that matters

Performers: Dan Baird: American Records recording artist and founder of The Georgia Satellites
Fenner Castner: Respected Nashville drummer, featured on Bill Lloyd's 1999 release, "Standing on the Shoulders of Giants"
Chicken Wire Gang: Triangle favorite for more than 10 years, featuring Stu Cole of The Squirrel Nut Zippers
Don Henry: Performer and Grammy Award-winning songwriter of "Where've You Been?"
Will Kimbrough: Songwriter, guitarist, formerly with Will and the Bushmen and The Bis-uits
Bill Lloyd: Koch recording artist, songwriter and musical director for "Freedom Sings" Formerly with country duo Foster & Lloyd
Jonell Mosser: Soulful Siren Song recording artist
Tommy Womack: Sideburn recording artist, former member of Government Cheese and The Bis-uits

Location: Polk Place: back steps of South Building
Rain backup: Gerrard Hall

ART & FREE EXPRESSION: THE IMPACT OF "SENSATION" 7-8:30PM

Participants: Gerald Bolas, director, Ackland Museum of Art
Herman Brannen, metal artist, contributor to the State Office of Community Colleges annual exhibit, Raleigh, N.C.
Hoyle Martin, dean, Urban Christian Ministry of the New Life Theological Seminary, Charlotte, N.C.
Norman Siegel, executive director, New York Civil Liberties Union
Susan Talbot, director, Des Moines Art Center

Moderator: Ken Paulson, executive director, First Amendment Center

Location: Hanes Art Center 121

Friday, March 31

INSIDE THE FIRST AMENDMENT 9-9:50AM

Participants: Ken Paulson, executive director, First Amendment Center
John Seigenthaler, founder, First Amendment Center

Location: Carroll 111

"THE FIRST FREEDOM" 10AM

Charles Guggenheim's new documentary examining the power of the First Amendment

Location: Carroll 111

THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT & THE FIRST AMENDMENT 2-2:50PM

Participants: Horace Carter, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, editor and author
Eugenia Seaman Marks, student at Women's College during Greensboro sit-ins
Reavis Mitchell, history department chair, Fisk University
John E. (Jack) Semonche, professor of history, UNC-Chapel Hill

Moderator: John Seigenthaler, founder, First Amendment Center, U.S. Justice Department official during the civil rights movement

Location: Carroll 111

"THE FIRST FREEDOM" 3PM

A repeat showing of Charles Guggenheim's documentary about the First Amendment

Location: Carroll 111

THE FREEDOM FORUM
FREE PRESS. FREE SPEECH. FREE SPIRIT.

FIRST AMENDMENT CENTER
FUNDED BY THE FREEDOM FORUM
www.freedomforum.org

All programs and the Freedom Sings concert are free and open to the public.