Wilson Shines at NCAAs With All-Around Effort

From Staff Reports

North Carolina gymnast Brooke Wilson set a school record for the all-around and floor competition at an NCAA meet in Athens, Ga., by scoring 39 points in the all-around and a 9.85 on floor.

UNC ROUNDUP

The marks earned her fourth place in each event and boosted her overall national ranking to 17th. The junior also finished fifth on the beam (9.8), 10th on the bars (9.775) and 25th on the vault (9.575).

Other competitors for UNC included Lisa Companion, who finished 11th on the beam with a 9.75, and Julie Pasqualini, who took 28th on the bars with a 9.6.

Baseball Slides Up the Rankings

The North Carolina baseball team (27-6, 4-5 in the ACC) has moved up to fifth in the country in the new USA TODAY Baseball Weekly/ESPN

Coaches' Top 25 poll.

Florida State (31-5, 9-3) remains No. 1, followed by Texas, South Carolina and Arizona State.

Clemson (24-6, 4-2), which lost two of three games to UNC last weekend, fell from fourth to seventh. Georgia Tech (23-8, 7-2) is now 18th, while Wake Forest (24-9-1, 8-4) is ranked No. 23.

The Tar Heels, who have won five out of their last six contests, will travel to Winston-Salem this weekend to take on the Demon Deacons.

But before heading back into the conference schedule, UNC plays Davidson today at 7 p.m. at Boshamer Stadium.

Freshman right hander Scott Autrey will be on the mound for North Carolina, putting his 6-0 record to the test.

Women's Tennis Faces Test

The North Carolina women's tennis team will put its three-match winning streak on the line when the Tar Heels face Virginia Commonwealth today at 4 p.m. at Cone-Kenfield Tennis Center.

UNC (8-8, 2-2 in the ACC) was mired in a three-match slump before knocking off Georgia Tech, N.C. State and Indiana in succession. The Tar Heels shut out the Wolfpack and Hoosiers by identical 6-0 scores.

The Tar Heels are undefeated at the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 5 singles during the three-match winning streak.

UNC junior Brooke Wilson set two school records Saturday and improved her national ranking to No. 17.
