

Break on Through

Phantom FM Lives the Life of Aspiring Rockers on the Hill

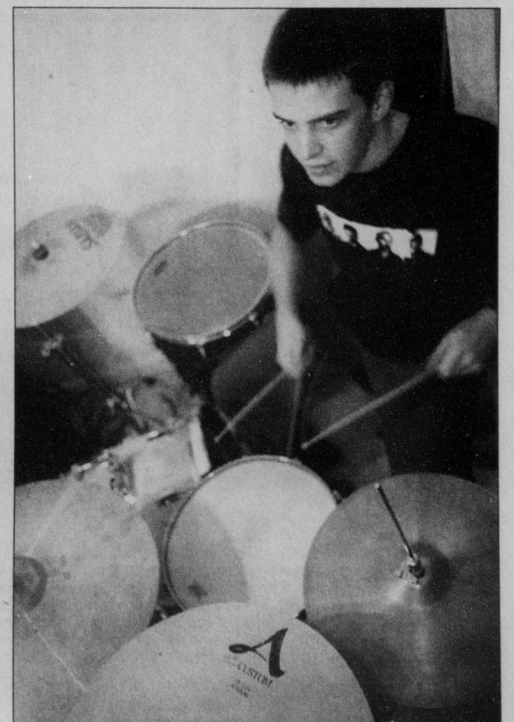

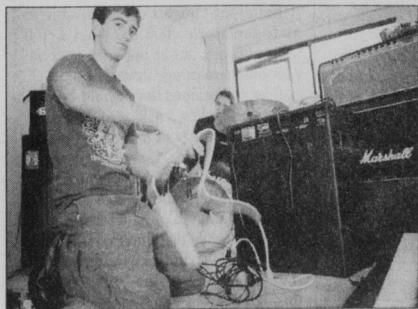

*I've watched love disappear
like the tail of a comet, and if I hear one more stupid girl giggle, I'll vomit.*

— "Fairy Tale for Drunks"

Like a flip-book, if I blink my eyes fast enough, I can make myself appear to MOVE.

— "The Judith Song"

(clockwise from top) Phantom FM practices once a week in the basement of Brennan Watson's house in Raleigh; Lead singer Nate Katzin and Phantom FM fan Mark Pickett jam at a party; Katzin and Zach Gresham (lead guitar) relax with friends after their performance; Drummer Logan Matheny also plays in Roman Candle, a band he co-founded with his brother Skip; The band travels to practices can-o'-sardine style; Katzin sets up before the show; Bass player Brennan Watson and keyboard player Lawson Bennett hang out during practice.

Photos by Christine Nguyen