

USA Moves On; China Goes Home

The Associated Press

MELBOURNE, Australia — The U.S. women's soccer team survived the slashes and gashes from the rough Nigerians. Now it's on to the medal round.

Brandi Chastain, Kristine Lilly and Shannon MacMillan scored as the Americans won their group Wednesday with a 3-1 victory against Nigeria. The U.S. team finished its first-round schedule 2-0-1 and will play Brazil in the semifinals Sunday.

But there will be no rematch of the World Cup final last year. China was eliminated 2-1 by Norway, which will play Germany in the other semifinal.

"I think it's a shame that a team like China's out of the tournament," captain Julie Foudy said. "We would have loved to had another shot at them."

The United States and China tied 1-1 Sunday in what appeared to be a preview of the gold-medal game. It wasn't, and, unlike her players, coach April Heinrichs isn't pinning at the thought of not seeing that team again.

"You've got to be crazy," Heinrichs said. "They're an awesome team, and I am standing on the shore watching their on a 6-yard volley with a perfect assist header from Foudy off a corner kick from Mia Hamm. Lilly won the corner kick with a good run down the left flank.

Six minutes later, U.S. keeper Siri Mullinix had to leap to bat away a looping header from Florence Omagbemi. Two minutes later, in the 35th, Lilly made it 2-0 on a gift goal deflected into the net off the leg of a Nigerian defender.

Nigeria got its goal when Mercy Akide went rumbling through the American defense. Akide shook off Joy Fawcett and buried the 12-yard shot over Mullinix in the 48th.

MacMillan restored the two-goal lead in the 56th minute.
