

Field Hockey Wins Twice on Road

From Staff Reports

HARRISONBURG, Va. — The third-ranked North Carolina field hockey team scored two goals in the final 8:08 of play Sunday to put out a 4-1 win against 12th-ranked James Madison at Bridgforth Stadium.

UNC ROUNDUP

UNC, which defeated Richmond 4-1 on Saturday, improved to 8-1 on the season with its fourth win against a team ranked in the top 20. James Madison fell to 5-3.

UNC senior Jana Toepel scored first, just more than 10 minutes into the game, on a penalty corner. Junior Abby Martin assisted on the play.

JMU tied the game on a goal by Elise van Ballegoie on a penalty corner with 6:34 remaining in the first half. UNC senior Kristen McCann scored her 10th goal of the season just 4:49 before half-time to give the Tar Heels a 2-1 lead they would not relinquish.

UNC sophomore Meredith Keller, who tallied the first goal of her career on Saturday against Richmond, scored in the second half on an assist from senior Holly Huff to put UNC up 3-1 with 8:08 to play. Senior Erin Cox scored from the field with 3:43 remaining for the final result.

Against Richmond, the Tar Heels took a 2-0 first-half lead on goals by Martin and McCann.

After Richmond's Heather Rice scored before the half to pull her team within one, McCann answered with her second goal. Keller closed the scoring.

UNC's Flanagan Wins 2nd Race

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — The UNC women's and men's cross country teams took second and third, respectively, at the William & Mary Interregional

Senior forward Kristen McCann scored her 10th goal of the season in a 4-1 victory against James Madison.

Invitational on Saturday.

The UNC women finished behind Michigan and ahead of Navy, William & Mary and Georgetown to complete the top five.

UNC freshman Shalane Flanagan won her second race of the year, crossing the line with a time of 17:18.7. Michigan runner Katie Jazwinski finished 25 seconds later (17:43.1) to take second place. Junior Beth George also placed in the top 10 for UNC, crossing the line ninth in 18:12.8.

On the men's side, UNC placed third behind St. Joseph's and William & Mary. Nick Iauco finished eighth (25:47.2) and edged out teammate Dash Victor, who crossed the line in 25:47.7 to take ninth place.

Fair, Phillips Receive Patterson Medal

Women's soccer National Player of the Year Lorrie Fair and All-American men's tennis player Tripp Phillips have been named recipients of the Patterson Medal for the year 1999-2000 as the outstanding senior athletes at UNC.

The Patterson Medal is based mainly on athletic accomplishment, although sportsmanship, leadership and general conduct are also considered.

Fair, who won the Honda Award as the top soccer player in the nation, was a consensus first-team All-American and ACC Player of the Year in 1999. She led UNC to a 24-2 record and an NCAA title, the third of her career. She was named the Defensive MVP in the final four of the 1999 Women's College Cup.

Phillips advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals last spring. He was runner-up in the No. 1 singles flight in the ACC and ranked 12th in the final ITA rankings. He was 26-5 in singles and led the Tar Heels from No. 68 in the nation in the preseason polls to a final ranking of No. 21.

Men's Golf to Tee Up at Preview

The North Carolina men's golf team will play in The Preview men's collegiate golf tournament today and Tuesday.

The two-day, 54-hole event will take place at the 7,054-yard, par-72 Duke University Golf Club.

The tournament is free of charge and open to the public.

Hamm Leads U.S. Team Into Gold-Medal Match

Former UNC All-American Mia Hamm scored the lone goal as the United States beat Brazil in the semifinals.

From Wire Reports

CANBERRA, Australia — Brazil kept dumping U.S. star Mia Hamm on the ground. Hamm responded by dumping Brazil out of the Olympic women's soccer final.

Moments after she drew a third yellow card from a Brazilian player for a hard tackle, Hamm scored a disputed goal in the 60th minute Sunday as the United States advanced to the gold medal game with a 1-0 victory.

"I take it as a sign of respect," Hamm said of her knockdowns. "Because if I don't, then I'd probably go crazy."

The Americans, who won the World Cup last year and the Olympic title four years ago, will be in the final Thursday in Sydney against Norway, which they beat 2-0 in the opening round. Norway edged Germany 1-0 in the other semifinal.

The goal came when Brandi Chastain took a free kick 40 yards away from the Brazil net. Lorrie Fair, only 5-foot-3, outleaped a defender in the box to head the ball toward the net. Tiffany Milbrett gave chase and collided with goalkeeper Andreia, leaving Hamm alone beyond the far post to tuck the ball in for her 127th international goal.

The Brazilians thought Swiss referee Nicole Petignat should have disallowed the goal for interference with the goalkeeper.

Former UNC star Lorrie Fair outleaped a defender to head the ball on the play that Mia Hamm scored on.

UNC Alumni Compete on Track

Allen Johnson headlined a group of six UNC alumni competing in track and field during the weekend.

Johnson advanced to the semifinals of the 110-meter high hurdles by clocking 13.55 seconds and placing second in his second-round heat.

Curtis Johnson failed to make the final of the 100-meter dash, placing sixth in his semifinal heat. Also failing to advance was UNC assistant coach Nicole Gamble, who placed 14th in her flight in the triple jump.

Monique Hennagan and LaTasha Colander-Richardson were both eliminated in the quarterfinals of the 400. Ken Harnden, competing for Zimbabwe, missed out on the quarterfinals of the 400 hurdles when he placed fourth in his heat.

"Studying Abroad Can Change Your Life"
Come and find out about

UNC YEAR AT MONTPELLIER, FRANCE

INFORMATIONAL MEETING

Where? Dey Hall, Room 113
UNC-Chapel Hill Campus

When? Wednesday, September 27, 2000
4:00-5:30pm

Video followed by discussion with last year's UNC Year at Montpellier participants.
For directions, call (919) 962-0154 or look us up at web: <http://www.unc.edu/depts/mont>
email: mont@unc.edu

"I came to France to gain a sense of global perspective and become more comfortable in another language—which I have done—and certainly so much more!" 1999-2000 Participant

late night dining
FREE DELIVERY to UNC
(limited delivery area)

- subs • pitas • chicken
- salads • burgers • platters

now serving UNC ROUNDUP ly's Grand Ice Cream

929-6551 — 107 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill

Their Chef ← Our Chef →

Taste the difference at

35 Chinese Restaurant
Chapel Hill

968-3488 University Square

$1 OFF with ad or UNC Student ID on Dinner Buffet!

Interviewing with a Consulting Firm?

Don't Miss...

Mastering Case Interviews

 a workshop designed to help you approach case interviews with confidence ***

Date: Tuesday, Sept. 26th
Time: 5:30-6:30 pm
Place: McColl 3250

conducted by:

MARKETBRIDGE
www.market-bridge.com

MarketBridge provides strategy and technology solutions for sales and marketing executives at Fortune 500 companies.

Another valuable lesson learned from Hollywood: 52 of 74

Every hooker has a heart of gold, but none of them have herpes.

Introducing Nibblebox.com. Tomorrow's entertainment today.
Log on for original episodic shows, interactive entertainment, and the best of college radio created by college students with help from directors like Doug Liman (Swingers), and producers like Sherry Gunther (The Simpsons). Because while it's fun making cynical comments about entertainment clichés, it's more fun to see what students are actually doing about it.

nibblebox.com
digital entertainment in short, tasty bytes.