Bucy got UNC on the scoreboard 3:29 into the contest off an assist from junior Chris Leith.

Bucy added assists on the Tar Heels' next two goals.

North Carolina senior Caleb Norkus scored less than seven minutes after Bucy scored his goal, and junior forward Chris Carrieri scored at 35:45 to give the Tar Heels a 3-0 lead.

Freshman forward Sean McGinty put the finishing touches on the win with a goal at 65:30. Carrieri assisted on the play.

North Carolina outshot Old Dominion 14-7 and registered its fourth shutout of the season. Goalkeepers Michael Ueltschey and Brad Thomas combined to blank the Monarchs. Ueltschey made three saves, and Thomas recorded two.

The Tar Heels take the field next against Duke on Sunday. Game time is 1 p.m. at Koskinen Stadium in Durham.

Nobody likes to look back at the past knowing things were supposed to be different.

Nobody likes to think about the should-haves and the could-haves, but it seems to inevitably happen at times anyway. Meredith Florance is just like anybody else that way.

Only she's doing something now so that her children's children never find themselves sitting around the fireplace listening to Grandma talk about how great a college soccer player she could have been.

"I think everybody wants to go out their senior year playing well, and you don't want to have any regrets," said Florance, a North Carolina forward.

"And I've had some regrets. The first three years, I haven't really played to the level that I know I can, so I think anybody wants to go out their senior year playing well. So hopefully that'll be me."

It should be. It could be. And if she keeps her season going the way it has been so far, it most definitely will be.

Florance will look to extend her three-game goal-scoring streak as No. 4 UNC faces No. 14 Duke at home Friday.

It's as if the ball has been willing itself into the goal off Florance's foot this year.

She tallied two goals and two assists in UNC's season-opening win against Texas and hasn't looked back since.

In a 9-1 win against South Carolina on Sept. 8, Florance scored four times, the first Tar Heel to do that since 1995.

She knocked in two goals in the Tar Heels' 4-0 win against William & Mary last Friday and notched another Sunday in a 6-0 victory against Texas Christian.

Those three goals boosted her team-leading number to 13, the same total she had last season when she played in 25 games and took 104 shots.

It's taken her 11 games and 44 shots to do the same this year.

"Unquestionably the biggest improvement this season relative to last season is the performance of Meredith Florance," UNC coach Anson Dorrance said.

Of course, the ball's seeming fancy for Florance doesn't even begin to explain the improvements she has made in 2000.

Over the summer, Florance stayed in Chapel Hill, taking classes and training with her best friend and teammate, defender Julia Marslender.

The two co-captains would go running together in the morning, then play pickup games in the afternoon.

The end result was Florance's fitness level kicking into a gear that it had not reached before.

"The key thing for me is the fact that I'm fitter," said Florance, who also has five assists. "I really worked hard and strived to be the fittest that I could be this year, and it's paid off. Being fitter has really helped me, because I can go 100 percent for longer."

Florance's goal against the Horned Frogs gave her 46 for her career, tying her for 11th place with Carrie Serwentyk on North Carolina's all-time list. Her 121 points rank 12th, leaving her only eight points behind Shannon Higgins.

"She's playing out of her mind," senior Raven McDonald said. "She's playing with a ton of confidence, the best I've seen her play since she's been here. It's fun to play with her."

Florance's biggest leap this year, however, might be her defensive prowess, a change that has also contributed to her improvement on offense.

Dorrance's coaching philosophy has always espoused defense all over the field from every player, not merely the back three.

Florance never appeared too keen on that philosophy in the past, and her defense was suspect.

But now she's leading the defensive charge up top, making games like the win against the Horned Frogs - who managed only one shot and rarely had the ball in UNC territory - commonplace this season.

"She is playing defense incredibly well, and that used to be a liability of hers," Dorrance said. "Now it's one of her strengths."

"And it's interesting: She's built her confidence as an attacking personality with her defensive presence because now she's playing great defense and she's scoring goals confidently."

And she's doing it all with no regrets.

Horoscopes

Libra (September 23-October 23)

Today's Birthday (Sept. 28).

A new and crazy idea you try could work. Do it with an imaginative and creative loved one, and your odds of success are greater. Jet down your plane in October. Figure out how much they'll cost in November. Something you learn in December could amaze you, but it's about time you found out. You and a loved one could win at a gamble in February. A risk you take in April's less-likely to succeed. June's good for anything creative. Watch out for a reality check next September.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

Aries (March 21-April 19). Today is a 5 - Let somebody else do the driving, make the decisions and take on the responsibility. You don't need to be in control of this situation. Somebody else can do that quite well, so relax.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Today is a 7 - A lucky break could go in your favor. You may be able to provide what's needed on a moment's notice. Watch for the opportunity by paying attention to your supervisor, teacher or anybody else in a position of authority. Think ahead, and you could earn a reward.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Today is an 8 - Follow through with a project that involves a foreigner, a foreign language or a college class. It should turn out quite well. Also, take a vow to keep your comments to yourself for the next few weeks. Dispense information on a "need to know" basis.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Today is a 6 - You should feel better and come up with lots of new ideas. You should be communicating with a loved one is easier. Too.
