Campus Calendar

Thursday, November 2, 2000

nlaw Hall. Anyone interested in bowl, Jeopardy or Who Wants to Millionaire is invited to attend. No

check out

o.m. - UE150-A: The N.C. tate Employee and Adjunct

Faculty Union will be having a general body meeting in 301 Greenlaw Hall. All those interested are invited to attend. 7 p.m. – InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, North Chapter, invites the entire campus community to come to Union 224 for its meeting. 7 p.m. – "INSIDE THE NUMBERS: A look at the Economic Policies of the Presidential Candidates." Come to 08 Gardner Hall to hear UNC economics professors discuss the issues and the numbers that concern you and your future, and have the chance to ask your own questions.

noon – The Black Student Movement will be kicking off BSM Month in the Pit. The BSM invites all to see some of its subgroups perform.

> The Daily Tar Heel Thursday, November 2, 2000 Volume 108, Issue 106 P.O. Box 3257, Chapel Hill, NC 27515 Matt Dees, Editor, 962-4086 Advertising & Business, 962-1163 News, Features, Sports, 962-0245 building costs. Insko, who voted for the current state budget that, in effect, approved the $600 tuition increase at UNC, said University costs are a responsibility of the state, not the students, and therefore does not support a large nuition increase.

TUITION

large tuition increase.

But Towne said tuition should keep up with the economy. UNC-system leaders do raise tuition incrementally to

When asked how they would make When asked how they would make the University more competitive, most of the candidates said more money was needed to improve faculty salaries. Insko said low salaries are a factor in driving many faculty members away. Lee said the University's laboratories also need improving. Doing so, he said, would bring in more research money.

coincide with inflation rates. A possible solution would be to raise out-of-state tuition, Boyd said. But Kinnaird said doing so would drive away valuable stu-

Towne and Hargrove said the University should seek private contributions to help pay for improvements.

Boyd, who said he had already voted for the bond, added that it is important to borrow the money now and make the necessary improvements because wait-ing would only create more expenses. But Bauman questioned where the money for all the improvements would get ahead of others, and some institu-tions felt the need to catch up by using campus-initiated tuition increases J.B. Milliken, UNC-system vice president of public affairs, said he was not yet aware of any official campus tuition requests but would not be surprised if system administrators received additional campuses' tuition requests this year.

The State & National Editor can be reached at stntdesk@unc.edu.

From Page 1

Payne said he had heard that administrators at Western Carolina University and UNC-Greensboro also are consid ering similar increases.
But Shaffer said ASU's tuition, which is $2,100 a year, is lower than most peer institutions. "For the university to

The University and Towns

Broad, Hunt to Speak For Bond Today in Pit

Gov. Jim Hunt and UNC-system President Molly Broad will come to the Pit on Thursday afternoon to promote the $3.1 billion higher education bond

THEUNIED STATES PANDRICAN

With this coupon or UNC Student ID, get

$1 OFF Dinner Buffet!

ONE DOLLAR

open super late night until 4am

always fresh, juicy, big and healthy where are we:

chapel hill: right across the street from the varsity theatre at 128 franklin street [at the end of the hall].

durham: on 9th street and perry street [across from brueggers]. 286-1875.

what we do

the largest Chinese Buffet in the Triangle

Chinese Restaurant

Chapel Hill

968-3488

University Square

From 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., Hunt and Broad will speak on the merits of the bond referendum.

"This is sort of a last rallying effort to encourage people to support the bond referendum," said Nancy Davis, associate vice chancellor for University relations. There also will be rallies Thursday on the campuses of Central Piedmont Community College and N.C.

Agricultural & Technical University.
Hunt and Broad will be joined by Martin Lancaster, president of the N.C.
Community College System, and Ben
Ruffin, chairman of the Board of Governors. Dr. Herman Porter, chairman of the State Board of Community Colleges, also will speak, and Student Body President Brad Matthews will introduce the speakers.

The UNC Pep Band will play at the remain competitive, we're looking at aising expenses."

Ryan Bolick, president of ASU student government, said he has not taken an official stance because of the tenta-tive nature of the proposal. "We want whatever we do to be reflective of the interests of the student body," he said.

Bolick said the student government formed a committee to explore the proposed increase. "Overall, students don't seem to be directly opposed to the idea of a tuition increase," Bolick said.

But he added that most students were not yet educated about the increase.

Last year, many student leaders strong-ly opposed tuition increase proposals. Payne said he plans to fight this increase and any others coming down the pipe. "They are truly outrageous," he said. "They hit students in the pockets."

The State & National Editor can be reached at stntdesk@unc.edu.

HALLOWEEN From Page 1

exempt from citations either. The Artists Escape Cafe at 137 E. Franklin St. got one violation for selling alcohol to minors, and Players at 159-1/2 E. Franklin St. received a written warning for an employee who was drinking.

There were also 10 violent alterca-tions reported. Police reports state that one person reported being hit in the head with a beer bottle and another reported being hit in the face and kicked. Two police officers also were injured. One ALE agent reported that a pumpkin was thrown at him, and an Orange County deputy sheriff said he was elbowed in the eye.

Despite these incidences, Jarvies said the crowd posed relatively few professions.

the crowd posed relatively few prob-lems for police. "There was less alcohol being brought into the area, so that helped keep the crowd under control."

The City Editor can be reached at citydesk@unc.edu.

san francisco OPERA CENTER

> WESTERN OPERA THEATER

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2 8PM, MEMORIAL HALL, UNC-CH

General public - $36, $32, $28 UNC-CH student $20, $18, $16

CAROLINA UNION BOX: OFFICE: (919) 962-1449

2000 OFFICIAL BALLOT FOR THE GENERAL ELECTION ORANGE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA NOVEMBER 7, 2000

U.S. PRESIDENT, MEMBER OF CONGRESS, STATE, DISTRICT AND COUNTY OFFICES READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE VOTING - MARK ONLY WITH PEN PROVIDED BY THE OFFICIAL

There are other

FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

NSTRUCTIONS TO VOTER

PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT ARE EXCLUDED FROM THE STRAIGHT PARTY TICKET. THEY MUST BE VOTED ON SEPARATELY.

FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

DEMOCRATIC AL GORE

JOE LIEBERMAN REPUBLICAN

GEORGE W. BUSH DICK CHENEY LIBERTARIAN

HARRY BROWNE ART OLIVIER REFORM PAT BUCHANAN

EZOLA FOSTER

DON'T STOP AT THE TOP!

pro-environment, pro-education, candidates on the ballot who will work for campaign finance reform.

SENATORIAL DISTRICT

(You may vote for TWO)
ELLIE KINNAIRD		DEM
HOWARD N. LEE		DEM
BILL BOYD		REP
VICKIE HARGROVE		REP

And don't forget the University and Community College bonds . . .

to pay the cost of renovating laboratories, classrooms, academic buildings, and worker training facilities and providing other capital improvements . . .

Paid for by the Kinnaird and Lee for Senate campaigns

