yote on Election Day; it does not call for us to continue voting until someone likes the outcome," Bush campaign chairman Don Evans said in Austin,

The official total lagged behind, and Secretary of State Katherine Harris said it could be as late as Tuesday – a week after the election – before the state certifies ballot results from all 67 counties Nearly 6 million Tuesday in Florida. She said it may take until Nov. 17 to tabulate ballots cast by Floridians living

"Nobody ever said that democracy was simple or efficient," said Elections Board member Bob Crawford.

The winner of Florida stood to gain the state's 25 electoral votes – and the keys to the Oval Office, unless Bush's m makes good on a threat to contest

Gore victories in Iowa and Wisconsin, among others.

With votes still dribbling in from across the country, Gore's lead in the popular vote was shrinking to about 200,000 votes out of 100 million. With ecincts still unreported (as of 8

Gore had 49,113,600 votes.

Bush had 48,906,647 votes.

It is the tightest election since 1960, when John F. Kennedy defeated Richard Nixon by 118,574 votes.

REACTION

comes in has made comments about it, asking to make sure the station is on so they could watch." McGovern said the overwhelming sentiment had been in favor of Vice President Al Gore.

People also filled Linda's Bar and Grill, located at 203 E. Franklin St., crowding around tables and TV sets to watch the recount results trickle in.

Medical student Andrew Moore and his friends engaged in heated debate about the race. "I can't believe it's coming down to 362 votes, even though Gore is winning the popular vote by more than 200,000," he said. "I think we'll see 'Dubya' taking office, but regardless of who wins, I think they wonly be in there for one term."

Despite divided opinions on the results, many said the race was especially compelling. Farag said she hasn't be able to tear herself away from the coverage. "It's like watching history unfold."
