

CAA
From Page 1

know the number the night before even if I go out at 6 a.m. on Saturday."

Sarah Humber, a sophomore classical studies major, also said she didn't think the changes to the distribution were warranted. "I don't think a lot of people (get multiple bracelets). Most people just get their own - I haven't seen any results from it."

She said the changes likely will cause problems. "It seems complicated on Saturday morning," she said. "It'll be more of a process and of course the confusion will be worse."

But Slatkoff said the change should have little effect on the Saturday morning distribution process.

"I at first anticipated a 30-minute addition (to the process) before we even started (giving out) the tickets, but some people who have been involved with this kind of thing before said they think it might not take that long," she said. "The biggest place we can get help is from the students - they need to get organized and get out there."

Slatkoff said this is the only way to ensure fairness in the distribution because it is not efficient to scan UNC ONE Cards when handing out bracelets, another option CAA considered. "If people think it takes a long time on Saturday morning, getting bracelets would be just as bad as Saturdays," she said.

And Pruitt said any inconveniences that might occur will be worthwhile.

"Our responsibility to the student body is that if the system isn't as efficient and effective and fair as need be, then it's our responsibility to make adjustments to improve its stability," he said. "The change is not going to hurt anyone at all. It's just going to help things out and level the playing field."

WELCH
From Page 1

and Welch said the family is now enjoying good times.

"Everything's worked out for the best," he said. "(We're) doing great - as good as it's ever been, without a doubt."

Welch said his siblings had some bearing on everything from the person he is nowadays to where he's attending college.

Through their parents' divorce, Welch said his older sister, Ashley, helped the rest of the kids through the tough times by dealing well with the situation herself.

"She set the right example for all of us," he said. "My parents' divorce was hard. It was really hard."

Ashley graduated from UNC in 1997, and when it was time for her twin siblings to choose a college, she could give them the low-down.

"She encouraged us," Welch said. "She wasn't forceful about it, but she knew we wouldn't have regrets."

As Welch glides through his first semester at UNC, he wants to gain as much as possible - starting with his musical interests.

"I didn't have time for it earlier in the semester," Welch said. But now he's starting to spend more of his time making music.

Welch recently started taking banjo lessons and is looking for music-related UNC activities to involve himself in.

He started playing the guitar in the eighth grade and picked up the banjo two years later.

The freshman says it was older brother Stewart, a bass player, who got him into music by convincing their mother to buy him a guitar for his birthday.

"It all came from my brother," he said.

But while Welch says his brother is more of a jazz musician, his musical choice is bluegrass.

"It's the kind of music a lot of people might not be familiar with," he said. "But when they hear it, they really like it."

While Welch is paying close attention to everything that's coming his way during his time at UNC, he's hesitant to make any final decisions.

He's just coasting through Carolina for now.

The Features Editor can be reached at features@unc.edu.

Welcome To The Site Of The New Millennium™ Where MONEY and EXCITEMENT keep GROWING!

Tuition Help Has Arrived!

Brighten Your Holiday Play

solveandwin.com

Coming December 15, 2000

Come Unravel Our Web!

Campus Calendar

Today

10 a.m. - Circle K will be in the Pit collecting new toys for Toys for Tots! Make the holidays a little happier for a child in need.

7 p.m. - Dr. Robin Watson, a visiting economist from the Central Intelligence Agency, will speak in 08 Gardner Hall on the role of economics in the CIA's mission.

A question-and-answer session and refreshments will follow Watson's speech.

8 p.m. - CHispa will host "When I Was a Puerto Rican," a one-woman play by Tere Martinez in the Great Hall of the Student Union.

Thursday

3:30 p.m. - The UNC Institute on Aging and the N.C. Division on Aging will co-sponsor "The Future of the Long-Term Care Work Force: 'It's Not Just the Economy, Stupid!'"

The speech will take place in the ballroom of the Friday Center.

5 p.m. - Why were blacks not allowed the right to vote?

Join us for "Bamboozled: A Discussion of the NAACP Vote Hearings" in Union 211.

The discussion is sponsored by the UNC chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

7 p.m. - "Night of the Divas," a concert to benefit the Orange County Rape Crisis Center, will take place in the Great Hall of the Student Union.

Tickets are $3.

7 p.m. - Want to volunteer and have fun?

Come to a holiday dance with Carolina Campus Civitan in the Union Cabaret for members of ARC, an organization for mentally retarded citizens.

There will be food, prizes and fun - so come dance the night away!

For the Record

The photo accompanying the Dec. 5 article "Class Shares Findings on Environmental Racism" misidentified the speaker as senior Scott Washington. The student pictured was Cecil Outlaw.

The Daily Tar Heel regrets the error.

The Daily Tar Heel

Wednesday, December 6, 2000
Volume 108, Issue 128
P.O. Box 3257, Chapel Hill, NC 27515
Matt Dees, Editor, 962-4086
Advertising & Business, 962-1163
News, Features, Sports, 962-0245

MCAT

Tonight: Free MCAT Passage Seminar!

Chapel Hill Kaplan Center
6:30-8:30pm

Classes start Saturday, January 13th!

Call today to enroll in the #1 MCAT prep course.

KAPLAN

1-800-KAP-TEST
www.kaptest.com

*MCAT is a registered trademark of the Association of American Medical Colleges.

Summer School Abroad

Scholarships Available

Spaces open in the following programs:

- Belgium/Germany June 23-July 19
- Great Britain/Norway July 1-27
- Greece May 20-June 17
- Oxford July 2-August 3

Registration continues through March 10, 2001

919 966 4364
www.unc.edu/summer

CB 3340, 134 E FRANKLIN STREET

Blue Hand

405 East Main Street
Carrboro
932-4263
www.bluehandstore.com

Polceci Tessuto Sharagano Betsy Johnson Luxe Jeans French Connection Belle Paige Red Engine Jeans Love Amour Emma Black NC Love Rebel Shooie

Need extra cash for Christmas?

Participate in our life-saving & financially rewarding plasma donation program.

IMMEDIATE COMPENSATION!

Donors Earn up to $200 per Month!

★ New donors earn $25 for first visit, $35 for the second visit within 7 days. Regular donors receive $25 per donation.

Call or stop by: Sera-Tec Biologicals

Under New Management

109 1/2 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill • 942-0251 • M-Th 10-6, Fri 10-4

BROOKDALE

The County College of Monmouth

Winterim Term 2001

Term runs from January 2 to January 16

You can earn 3 credits in 2 weeks

Call our hotline: 732-224-2345 for class listings

Registration begins November 27

Visit our website at www.brookdale.cc.nj.us for course listings and descriptions

An equal opportunity/affirmative action institution

extra special

Cellar Door

YAS (Youth Angst Society)

Wednesday, December 6 at 5:30pm

Undergraduates read from their original poetry and prose just published in the new issue of The Cellar Door. Refreshments will be served.

Bull's Head Bookshop
UNC Student Stores • 962-5060
bullshhead@store.unc.edu