

The University and Towns IN BRIEF

Budget Applications Deadline Approaches

All student organizations planning to attend the annual Student Congress budget allocations must submit forms by 5 p.m. Monday.

The forms - which can be obtained along with more information at www.unc.edu/student/orgs/studgov/Executive/Treasury/budgetIndex.htm - must be returned to Suite C of the Student Union.

The order of student organizations' appearances before the finance committee will be posted outside Suite C at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

For more information, contact Student Body Treasurer Patrick Frye at 962-4964 or uncsb@hotmail.com.

UNC Clinical Professor Elected to N.C. Board

Rachel Stevens, a clinical professor with the UNC School of Public Health, was recently elected president of the N.C. Association of Local Boards of Health.

Stevens currently acts as deputy director of the UNC School of Public Health's N.C. Institute for Public Health.

At the School of Public Health, Stevens also oversees an education program for public healthcare professionals and serves as director of the Public Health Nursing Master's Program.

Actors, Singers Called For March 24 Auditions

The country's largest combined audition for outdoor historical dramas will take place at UNC on March 24.

As many as 16 outdoor historical drama companies from Alabama, Kentucky, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia will be on campus seeking actors, singers, dancers, theater technicians and designers.

About 350 jobs available through the auditions will last nine to 14 weeks, June through August, and are open to anyone 18 years or older with theater experience.

Applications must be received by the institute by March 19.

Applications, instructions and directions may be obtained on the institute's Web site at www.unc.edu/depts/outdoor.

For more information, call the institute from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays at 962-1328 or e-mail outdoor@unc.edu.

Group Sets Reunion For Volunteers, Victims

The Orange County Red Cross will be hosting a homecoming and a reunion in March for disaster victims and the volunteers who assisted them.

Those residents who were disaster victims should contact Beverly Wilson at 942-4862 by Feb. 15 if they are interested in participating in a reunion.

Volunteers Sought For After School Program

The Estes Hills Elementary After School Program in Chapel Hill is looking for volunteers to work with children ages five to 12.

Volunteers with the program would be required to work at the school at least once a week.

Volunteers are needed for arts and crafts, languages, sports, gardening, 4-H, singing and tutoring, and can work with one child or small groups.

For more information, contact Karen Kessler at 942-4753, ext. 272.

Cash Prizes Available For Litter Prevention

The N.C. Department of Transportation, Clean N.C. and the North Carolina Soft Drink Association are sponsoring the second annual N.C. Litter Prevention Awards.

Cash prizes of $1,000 and $500 will be awarded to those groups involved in litter abatement activities during 2000.

All applications are due by Wednesday.

Applications can be downloaded at www.dot.state.nc.us/beautification/awards or requested from the Beautification Office at 715-3188.

For more information, contact Heather Thompson at 715-2553.

2001 John Hope Franklin Student Documentary Awards

The Center for Documentary Studies, established at Duke University in 1989, and dedicated to documenting the reality of people's lives in our complex culture, will give awards to undergraduates attending Triangle-area universities. These prizes are designed to help students conduct summer-long documentary fieldwork projects. Students interested in applying for the prize should demonstrate an interest in documentary studies and possess the talent and skills necessary to conduct an intensive documentary project. Those skills may include oral history, photography, film or video, essay or creative writing, journalism or active interest in community service programs.

Awards of up to $2000 will be given out. Applications should be submitted during the month of February; those postmarked after March 1, 2001, will not be accepted.

Full guidelines for the 2001 JHF Student Documentary Awards are currently available. For a copy of the guidelines, please send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to:
