Did you know?

Historians believe that Valentine's Day originated from an ancient Roman feast called Lupercalia. The Romans worshipped a god called Lupercus, a protective deity who kept wild wolves from overrunning the city. The festival held to honor Lupercus was held on February 15, and was celebrated as a spring festival (the calendar was a bit different in those days).

love isn't/ love until you give it away/ so I'm giving it to you my Carolina boo/ enjoy dinner for two/ relax with movie passes/ no need to check your eyes, what you see in your glasses/ is true/ And..truly we dine until Aurora closes/ And...surely the beauty in your eyes is far more than roses.

Shanda,
Today is like all others, since day is not day without you. Despite the peaks and valleys of our relationship, I do not regret the day we decided to transcend our close friendship to an intimate echelon. Happy Valentine's Day. I love you God

Khalil, you breathed and I wanted to get to know you better. You breathed and I loved you even though I had no idea of who you were or who you were going to be. You breathed and the fact that you are living changed my life. Wow! You breathed. Happy Valentine's Day. Love, LaToya

I love you for your sense of humor, your intelligence, your honesty and your hard work. I love you for your encouragement ("Buck up, Buttercup"). I love you for the million nicknames you give me and for taking me on "vacations". I love you for being my best friend. Happy Valentine's Day.

To Belle,
O let my gaze forever bend. Upon a beauty sent. And from on high to give me A taste of heaven's bread. So now sweet slumber I detest, Enticed instead to woo. Your tender feet I bathe w/ love, For you, I ache to serve. -JEW

Dear Marie,
"But then came the day, I climbed out of these safe limbs, ventured away, walking Tall, Head High Up and Singing, I went to the City, Car Horns, Corners and the Gritty, Now I Am the Proud-est Monkey You've Ever Seen, Monkey See Monkey Do." Pierre

For Wendy: Valentine, I have nothing special to say. A holiday does not stir the poetry within me. I celebrate February 15th or 13th or the 14th of November—for every day is yours. Love of mine, I forget pink hearts and Cupid's wings, and celebrate your soul and the angel in your eyes.

Did your Valentine kiss another?
