

Best Ethnic Restaurant

Winner: 35 Chinese

Honorable Mention: Mediteranean Deli

You don't have to travel overseas to get great Chinese food. 35 Chinese at University Square serves the best buffet around. Grab a plate and go back as many times as you'd like. Dessert is included and you'll get $1 off if you bring your ONE card.

Best Place to Stock Up on Carolina Paraphernalia

Winner: Shrunken Head

Close Second: Student Stores

Right on Franklin Street and convenient to campus, Shrunken Head offers students and alumni lots of UNC stuff. From t-shirts to hats and from bumper stickers to mugs, Shrunken Head has everything you need to be a true Tar Heel. Rah Rah Carolina!

Best Lunch Bargain

Winner: Cosmic Cantina

Honorable Mentions: Squeaky's and Sutton's

You get a lot for your money at Cosmic and you're guaranteed to keep coming back. The prices help students who are on a tight budget, and Cosmic never leaves you hungry.

Best Place to Shop

Winner: Crabtree Mall in Raleigh

Second Place: (East & West) Franklin Street

Even if you have to ride TTA, Crabtree Mall is well worth the trip for UNC students. This mall has sophisticated chain stores not found in Chapel Hill or Durham and is surrounded by wonderful restaurants. A 30-minute ride guarantees great shopping.

Closer to home - really close - and unique are the shops on East and West Franklin Street.
