Habitat for Humanity of Moore County

Do you want to help end substandard housing in a community? Do you want to be part of a dynamic Habitat for Humanity affiliate in a beautiful county full of golf courses and homes? AmeriCorps is a national service program to commit one year of your life to a meaningful effort. Moore County Habitat is looking for three construction volunteers and one construction/volunteer liaison to work August 2001 - July 2002. You earn a modest living stipend, a stipend to assist with rent from the affiliate, and a $475 tuition credit or credit to pay off college loans. All training costs are paid for. If you need a break from college, aren't sure what you want to do with yourself out of high school, or graduated from college and want to try something different, AmeriCorps may be your answer. Come join a winning team and build at least 12 homes for people who otherwise would live in bad housing conditions. Staff and volunteers work together to accomplish the organization's mission of building simple decent homes for God's people in need, and at the same time have fun. Contact Elizabeth Cox at Habitat for Humanity of Moore County, (910)692-4173 or habitatmooreco@pinhurst.net or send a resume with a letter of inquiry to: Executive Director, HFFHMC, P.O.
