

Testo, Gell Emerge As Offensive Threats

By IAN GORDON
Assistant Sports Editor

With the departure of Michael Bucy, Chris Carrieri and Caleb Norkus from last year's men's soccer team, North Carolina coach Elmar Bolowich needed to find new answers to his offensive questions.

Bolowich may have identified some potential solutions this weekend in Mike Gell and David Testo.

Gell scored two goals and tallied two assists, and Testo added a pair of goals and another assist to help the Tar Heels outscore East Carolina and Appalachian State 11-1 this weekend.

While Bolowich was upset with the offensive flow of UNC's 3-0 win against ASU on Monday, he was pleased by the efforts of Testo, a junior transfer from South Carolina.

"I like David Testo," said Bolowich, who also coached Testo on a local Olympic development team. "He plays as an attacking midfielder, which is a good position for him. He's a strong player; he can hold the ball off."

"I think we didn't play through him as much today as we should have, perhaps. I think we should have used Testo a little bit more today, particularly in the first half."

After a quiet first half, Testo came alive after the intermission. He eventually scored the Tar Heels' second goal in the game's 47th minute off a pass from Gell.

Testo had other chances to find the back of the net later in the match but missed two goal-scoring opportunities from within the six-yard goal box.

Gell said Testo's play-making ability will fit in well with a UNC team that will try to play through its midfield.

"He's a great player," Gell said. "He holds the ball well. He's got great touch. He's great for us forwards, who can get passes from him and score goals."

While Testo's six goals and 12 assists during his career in Columbia may have alluded to success in Chapel Hill, Gell's numbers were a bit more modest.

Gell appeared in 20 games last year for UNC and dished out five assists. He didn't score in 2000 but posted two goals his freshman season.

The junior from Durham has already doubled his career output for goals scored in just two games this year.

Bolowich was cautiously optimistic about Gell's success, noting that the season is still young.

"I don't want to jump the gun here, but he looks really good right now, and I think he's matured," Bolowich said. "He may not score in every game, but he will consistently be a threat."

If the Tar Heels can get production out of Gell and Testo, along with continued solid play from its midfielders and forwards, then this weekend's breakthroughs could continue in 2001.

"With all the forwards leaving last year, with all the new experience coming in," Testo said, "we have to learn to play together."

Wake Forest Topples East Carolina

In Wake coach Jim Grobe's debut, the Demon Deacons used a no-huddle offense to stun the Pirates at home.

The Associated Press

GREENVILLE - Tarence Williams ran for 162 yards and a touchdown as Wake Forest beat East Carolina 21-19 Saturday night in their first game under Jim Grobe.

Wake, which won just two games last season, went with a no-huddle offense and caught ECU off-guard early.

The Deacons had 203 total yards in the first half and crossed the ECU 10 in their first four drives for a 12-0 lead.

East Carolina, who played in the galleryfurniture.com bowl in 2000, struggled early in the opener for both teams, managing just 31 yards on 18 plays before going on a quick 56-yard scoring drive late in the first half.

Pirate David Garrard was 18 of 35 for 231 yards and had three turnovers - two of which led to 10 Wake Forest points.

Garrard got ECU to 21-19 with 3:48 left, but was stopped on a run up the middle on the 2-point try.

Clemson Tops Central Florida

CLEMSON, S.C. - Clemson coach Tommy Bowden was pleased with his team's first game. His quarterback wasn't as happy.

"I'm frustrated because there are plenty of times I could have made a play and broke this thing open and didn't do it," Woodrow Dantzler said.

Dantzler's harsh assessment of his play came after he went 15 of 25 for 152 yards and ran 18 times for 46 yards as the Tigers beat Central Florida 21-13 on Saturday.

Dantzler's teammates would only account for 92 yards as Clemson's offense sputtered.

Bowden was concerned his team only got two first downs after taking a 21-7 lead with 10:36 left in the third quarter. "We've got 10 games to improve," Bowden said. "I hope we do improve."

Georgia Tech Thumps The Citadel

ATLANTA - George Godsey didn't care that he was facing an overmatched Division I-AA team.

The Georgia Tech quarterback was quite pleased with the way Georgia Tech and the starting offense performed Saturday night in a 35-7 victory against The Citadel.

"The first 20 or so plays, we had 21 points," Godsey said. "It's good to see that regardless of the opposition. Overall, our offense played really well."

Godsey passed for 224 yards and two touchdowns and directed scoring drives on four of Georgia Tech's first five possessions as the Yellow Jackets coasted to the victory.

Godsey completed his first 11 passes and was 14 of 16 when he left with 8:50 remaining in the second quarter and Georgia Tech up 28-0.

The Jackets, who opened the season last Sunday with a 13-7 victory against Syracuse in the Kickoff Classic, got two touchdowns from Joe Burns on runs of 1 and 7 yards.

Florida State Blows Out Duke

DURHAM - Organized chaos gave way to a typical Florida State blowout Saturday night.

Chris Rix eased into the post-Chris Weinke era with two touchdown passes and the Seminoles blocked two punts for scores to beat Duke 55-13.

The Seminoles spotted the Blue Devils an early touchdown in the season opener for both teams, then clamped down on defense and made a pair of special team plays in the second quarter that turned the game around in Florida State's favor.

Giants Fall, Bonds Hits 58th HR

With his homer, Barry Bonds remains two games behind the record pace set in 1999 by the Cubs' Sammy Sosa.

The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO - Barry Bonds hit his 58th homer on a rare mistake by rookie Jason Jennings, who pitched seven innings of three-hit ball for his third straight victory as the Colorado Rockies beat the Giants 4-1 Monday.

Bonds hit a 1-0 pitch over the right-center field wall to open the fourth inning. The majors' home run leader rounded the bases to a standing ovation for his second homer in six at-bats, but the drive was San Francisco's only success against Jennings.

Juan Uribe homered and drove in three runs to back Jennings (3-0), who has made an exceptional debut at the end of Colorado's dismal season. The Rockies' top pick in the 1999 amateur draft pitched a five-hitter in his major league debut 11 days ago, and he beat the Dodgers in his second start.

Jennings walked four and gave up a triple to John Vander Wal later in the fourth inning, but San Francisco couldn't push across any runs. After batting cleanup on Sunday, Bonds was back in the third spot to hit his 58th homer in the Giants' 138th game.

He's two games behind the record pace set in 1999 by Sammy Sosa, who did it in 136 games.

Bonds went 1 for 3. He reached on an error in the first, and reliever Mike Myers struck him out in the eighth.

Jay Powell gave up a leadoff double to Jeff Kent in the ninth and finished for his sixth save in as many chances.

The Rockies salvaged a split of their four-game series at Pacific Bell Park with just their fourth victory in 22 games in San Francisco.

The Giants, who began the day behind the Cubs in the NL wild card race, missed a chance to catch up while losing for the sixth time in 11 games.
