

Congress Doubts Skilling's Testimony

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON - Leaders of Congress' investigations of the Enron collapse said flatly Sunday they didn't believe the sworn testimony of former Enron chief executive Jeffrey Skilling, and one suggested he could face formal accusations of perjury.

They challenged Skilling's words as they prepared to hear from ex-Enron Chairman Kenneth Lay, scheduled to testify Tuesday. Two committees subpoenaed Lay a week ago have issued subpoenas compelling him to come.

"We will be respectful but tough," in questioning Lay, Sen. Byron Dorgan, D-N.D., chairman of a Senate commerce panel on consumer affairs, told CNN. But while Lay must show up, he could still invoke his right to not incriminate himself, and refuse to answer questions.

After an intense week of hearings, lawmakers say they have strong evidence of illegal activity surrounding the failure of the energy-trading company, which slid into the biggest bankruptcy in U.S. history Dec. 2.

A House investigative panel heard hours of conflicting testimony Thursday from Skilling, who was chief executive officer of Houston-based Enron, and other top company officials. Skilling said he knew few details of the complex web of partnerships that brought down Enron, and he insisted he was never warned of problems with the arrangements.

Rep. Jim Greenwood, R-Pa., chairman of the House Energy and Commerce subcommittee, and Rep. Billy Tauzin, R-La., who heads the full committee, told CBS's "Face the Nation" that they didn't believe Skilling.

"He was totally incredible," said Tauzin. "This is the guy who was in charge of the corporation. ... I'm afraid he may have put himself in some legal jeopardy as a result."

CAMPAIGNING

From Page 1

loose ends on Sunday and Monday and then campaign from "sun up to sun down" on Tuesday.

"It's been a fun ride," McKinney said. "Whatever happens on Tuesday, I have no regrets."

Write-in candidate Nathan Katzin said he sent out one e-mail Friday and plans to send out another - this one with a link to song lyrics - on Monday.

Katzin said his supporters will be talking to people and passing out handbills Monday.

He said he might put up posters but that he still hadn't decided.

"I'm trying to run the campaign on the strengths of the issue (progressive energy reform)," Katzin said, "not on my face."

Candidate Bennett Mason said he spent the weekend preparing an e-mail to send out Monday and contacting groups to ask for support.

Mason said he thinks the final days are the most important part of the campaign. "My campaign has been building up momentum, and this is the final push," he said.

"I can't wait until Tuesday night to see the result of three weeks of work."

by candidate Will McKinney, who said his knowledge of the University is an example of his qualifications for the position of student body president even though he has no prior experience in student government.

"I don't think student government is a Rubik's cube that's hard to figure out," he said. "If you follow all the issues related to the University, you can do a good job."

The University Editor can be reached at udesk@unc.edu.

The University Editor can be reached at udesk@unc.edu.

STV

From Page 1

in establishing a Victim's Awareness Fund that would provide free HIV medication to student sexual-assault victims.

He said raising student fees by 25 cents would provide enough funding to ensure that all students are covered under the program.

"This is a way we can use our student fees for a good cause," he said.

The quiz bowl competition was won

Apply for the

Undergraduate Honor Court

Applications available at Union Desk or 207 Suite D, Student Union

Applications due 2/15/02 by 5pm

Interest meetings:

2/5/02: 8:30pm, Union 208

2/7/02: 7:30pm, Union 211

2/11/02: 8:30pm, Union 213

UCIS
University Center for International Studies

Faculty Curriculum Development Awards

Award: $2,500 stipend & up to $3,000 for travel

This award supports faculty interested in adding substantive international content to their curriculum. Graduate or undergraduate courses in any department, curriculum, or school are eligible, with preference given to regularly taught and/or required courses, and to departments with low levels of international content in their courses.

Deadline: March 22, 2002

For application information see www.ucis.unc.edu or email Dr. Niklaus Steiner at nsteiner@unc.edu.

ATTENTION

Research Volunteers Needed

Are you suffering from Allergies?

North Carolina Clinical Research is seeking participants for a medical research study who meet these qualifications:

- Are 12 years of age or older
- Have a history or diagnosis of allergies
- Symptoms may include runny nose, congestion, sneezing, itchy nose and eyes

Eligible participants will receive at no cost study-related physical examination, skin test, EKGs and lab tests and study medication, as well as reimbursement for time and travel.

NORTH CAROLINA Clinical Research

"Where patient care and the future of medicine come together."

Developments in the War on Terrorism

Afghan Warlord Vows To Keep Fighting

■ An Afghan warlord who led the worst factional fighting since the fall of the Taliban vowed Sunday to fight rather than step down as governor of an eastern province. In the north, warlords agreed to create a "security belt" to keep unauthorized weapons out.

Iraq Vice President Dismisses Powell's Comments

■ Iraq's vice president on Sunday dismissed U.S. Secretary of State Colin Powell's comments that the United States might have to act alone to bring about a "regime change" in Iraq. "God ... won't be with the arrogant American invaders," Taha Yassin Ramadan told reporters.

Remains of 5 Police Officers Found at the WTC Site

■ The remains of five Port Authority police officers, including a chief and the female captain of the agency's training academy, were recovered at the World Trade Center site, a spokesman said Sunday. The bodies were discovered together Saturday.

Campus Calendar

Today

5 p.m. - Zeta Phi Beta sorority Inc. and Phi Beta Sigma fraternity Inc. are hosting Episode 5 of the "Roots" television series in 100 Hamilton Hall.

7 p.m. - The UNC Campaign Finance Reform Alliance will show the Bill Moyers documentary "Free Speech for Sale" in 304 Dey Hall. Come learn about the influence of money in politics while snacking on some free food!

8 p.m. - The Carolina V-Day Initiative is hosting a benefit concert in the Great Hall of the Student Union, featuring Waybetter. Tickets are $3 and can be purchased from the V-Day table in the Pit.

8 p.m. - Watch Carolina Week's Special Election Coverage on STV tonight until 9:20 p.m.

This special program will feature a debate between candidates running for student body president and Carolina Athletic Association president.

go to dailytarheel.com

- Report Claims Grade Inflation Still A Problem Nationwide
By Nathan Perez
- Tuition Hike Threatens Day-Care Program's Availability, School Board's Resources
By Scott LaPierre
- Learning Disabilities Office Moves to Larger Space
By Eshanthi Ranasinghe
- Donation Sheds Light on Politician's Life
By Courtney Hinesley

The Daily Tar Heel

P.O. Box 3257, Chapel Hill, NC 27515
Katie Hunter, Editor, 962-4086
Advertising & Business, 962-1163
News, Features, Sports, 962-0245
© 2002 DTH Publishing Corp.
All rights reserved

Summer Jobs

on the

Chesapeake Bay

Work and play with campers and friends in one of our many program areas:

Sailing	Swimming	Field Hockey
Canoeing	Arts & Crafts	High & Low Ropes
Tennis	Horseback Riding	Mountain Biking
Lacrosse	Waterskiing	Nursing Staff
Nature	Basketball	Office Staff and much more!

Recruiters on campus

Wednesday, February 13, 10am - 2pm
Union Lobby

Interviews and applications available

If you cannot be there, contact Elizabeth Staib at YMCA Camp Tockwagh 410-348-6004 or estaib@ymcade.org

Hinton James got hit for $35.50 for a year's tuition.

So it's a little more expensive now.
You look like you could use a free lunch.

Complete this progressive puzzle and get eligible for prizes like a $300 tuition credit, Foot Locker gift certificate, a DVD player and a CD player, spa retreats, phone minutes, and more.

It's the General Alumni Association's Third Annual Hinton James Day - our celebration of Carolina students in honor of the very first Tar Heel.

Come give us your puzzle answer at lunch in the Great Hall of the Union from 11:30 to 1:30 Tuesday, February 12.
New clue in the DTH February 12.

Free food (while it lasts).
Valid student UNC One Card required for admission.
GAA Student Members receive a bonus entry.

past clues

UR 4 a f+ y+

U R

Clue #4 of 5

GENERAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

HAVE YOU FILED YET?

FAFSA and Profile forms must be received by March 1
***FOR PRIORITY CONSIDERATION***

=

FILE FINANCIAL AID FORMS ONLINE:

FAFSA: www.fafsa.ed.gov
Profile: www.collegeboard.com

*****

For more Financial Aid Information
Visit the Website of the Office of Scholarships & Student Aid

studentaid.unc.edu

WOODY'S

TAR HEEL TAVERN & GRILL

EVERY MONDAY

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

$1.25
domestic pints

GET THE PICTURE?

175 E. Franklin St. • 968-3809