Hunt Endorsement Gives Boost to Bowles

By SARA LONGENECKER

Political pundits say former Gov. Jim Erskine Bowles for the U.S. Senate will provide a vital boost to the Charlotte

Tuesday, April 2, 2002

investment banker's campaign. Hunt endorsed Bowles, who served as President Clinton, on Thursday, slighting the other Democratic U.S. Senate candidates running to fill the seat being vacated by Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C. Rep. Dan Blue, D-Wake, and N.C. Secretary of State Elaine Marshall are primary competition for the Democratic nomination

Former Red Cross President Elizabeth Dole is the leading Republican contender. Dole has been endorsed by both Helms and President Bush.

Susan Lagana, press secretary for the Bowles campaign, said Hunt's endorse-ment would likely translate into additional support for the candidate.

"Governor Hunt is one of the most popular political figures in North Carolina," she said. "His proven success in getting things done and getting the support of North Carolinians is undisputed."

She said the endorsement of Hunt, who served four terrees a N.C.

who served four terms as N.C. governor,

will be a major asset to the campaign.

Thad Beyle, UNC political science professor, said the endorsement is a vital boost for Bowles, who according to a recent Elon University polls has less name recognition than Dole.

"Hunt wanted to put a little push on the side of Bowles," Beyle said. Beyle said Hunt's endorsement will reactivate the political machine that supported Terry Sanford, who served as both N.C. governor and U.S. senator, and aided the election of numerous Democrats, including Hunt.

Beyle said Hunt's endorsement would likely have a negative effect on the campaigns of other Democrats con-tending for the seat.

Beyle said many of the other Democratic candidates were hoping to get Hunt's endorsement. "They're not happy," he said.

Beyle added that the mix of Hunt's decision to endorse Bowles and lawsuits that have delayed the campaign primaries might prompt other Democrats to drop out of the race.

But some of Bowles' leading competitors questioned whether he could adequately represent N.C. citizens.

Blue stated in a press release that

Bowles' support comes primarily from party insiders and financial donors. Marshall criticized Hunt in a press release, claiming his actions might split the party. "Governor Hunt once stated that he believed his role in this primary was to be the healer of the Democratic Party," she stated. "His announcement does not show he is dedicated to that goal."

The State & National Editor can be reached at stntdesk@unc.edu.

Developments in the War on Terrorism

Pakistan Surrenders Al-Qaida Leader to U.S.

■ Pakistani officials have handed over to the United States a man considered the biggest catch yet in the war on terrorism: Abu Zubaydah, a senior al-Qaida leader believed to have been trying to regroup the organization in Pakistan, officials said Monday.

Peacèkeeper Shootings Blamed on Northern Alliance Troops

■ Disgruntled Northern Alliance soldiers were blamed Monday for two recent shooting targeted international peacekeepers, and a spokesman for the security force said troops would significantly increase their presence in a lawless part of the capital.

Pentagon Officials Debate Additional Anthrax Shots for Soldiers

■ Pentagon authorities are considering additional anthrax vaccinations for U.S. troops. Defer Secretary Donald H. Rumsfeld said Monday that he is awaiting a recommendation on resumi the inoculation program. He did not say definitively that the program would be restarted.

Campus Calendar

Today

7:30 p.m. – Carolina Style, a jazz, tap and ballet company, is having its Spring Show in Memorial Hall. Tickets cost $5 in advance and $6 at the door.

For the Record

A photo caption April I incorrectly stated that Trustee Tim Burnett voted for a night parking permit plan. At the meeting, six trustees voted to send the plan back for revision. No dissenting vote was taken. The April I article "Trustees Approve Sale of Satellite Tract to Winmore" incorrectly referred to the Horace Williams satellite tract as the Horace Williams tract. The Daily Tar Heel regrets the errors.

7:30 p.m. – Queer Network for Change presents Jimmy Creech, a for-mer Methodist minister who will speak in Union 224 about homosexuality and the church for Celebration Week.

11 a.m. – Project Literacy, a commit-tee of the Campus Y, will be sponsoring a book drive in conjunction with Human Rights Week. Members will be accepting donations in the Pit today through Friday, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The Daily Tar Heel

P.O. Box 3257, Chapel Hill, NC 27515 Katie Hunter, Editor, 962-4086 Advertising & Business, 962-1163 News, Features, Sports, 962-0245

copy per person; additional copies may be assed at The Daily Tar Heel for $.25 each. © 2002 DTH Publishing Corp. All rights reserved

TODAY!

Women's Tennis vs. Notre Dame

2:30pm at Cone-Kenfield Tennis Center

Baseball vs. Liberty

6pm at Boshamer Stadium

SPORTS SHORTS Hardee's Students & Faculty Admitted FREE w/ID!

"a healthy indulgence" owntown Chapel Hill 106 W. Franklin St. (Next to He's Not Here) 942-PUMP JOCURT North Durham Northgate Mall pump HOURS: Mon-Sat 11:30am-11:00pm, Sun 12:00pm-11:00pm hate, violence, and the American way? legal responses to hate crimes

Voted by Consumer Reports the best pepperoni pizza out of national chains!

Better Ingredients

+ UNC OneCard

Accepting UNC OneCard with no extra charge.

FREE CHEESESTICKS

with LARGE One Topping Pizza

Limited delivery area • Coupon Required.

EXPIRES 47.28/102. Not valid with any other offer. Valid only at participating locations. Customer pays all applicable sales tax. Additional toppings extra. Good for carry-out or delivery. Additional toppings extra.

Papa John's Pizza

932-7575

Order Pizza Online!

www.papajohns.com

Better Pizza

HOURS Mon-Wed 11 am-2 am

Thurs-Sat 11am-3am

Sunday Noon-1am

The Johnston Awards Program at Carolina is hosting its annual Issues Forum on April 2, 2002.

Toward Racial Justice: Civil Rights, Hate Crimes, and Wartime

Frank Wu Author of Race in America: Beyond Black and White (Basic 2001). Frank Wu is a Professor of Law at Howard University. Currently, Professor Wu chairs the DC Human Rights Commission and the DC Board of Professional Responsibility. He has testified against legislation that would abolish affirmative action before the United States House of Representatives, Judiciary Committee. Constitution Sub-Committee. He has also worked as a campaign organizer with Californians United Against Proposition 187.

Panelists

Deborah Ross Executive Director of the North Carolina state chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union. Deborah Ross chairs the Constitutional Rights and Responsibilities Section of the North Carolina Bar Association. She also serves as Section Council on the Juvenile Justice Section.

Jon Sanders Director of the POPE Institute. Mr. Sanders is a member of the Raleigh think-tank John Locke Foundation and Founder of the Clarion Magazine.

Carl Ross Community Relations Manager for the North Carolina Human Relations Commission.

April 2, 2002, 7:00 pm School of Social Work Tate-Turner-Kuralt: Room 136

For information: aaron_pollack@unc.edu

Join singer/songwriter

Dana Lyons

for a special free performance Tuesday, April 2 7pm

> Lively Wanted on the front porch of the

> > OHNSTON CENTER UNDERGRADUATE FXCELLENCE

> > > in Grabam Memorial

A kickoff concert for the Roots and Shoots celebration co-sponsored by the Honors Program and the James M. Johnston Center for Undergraduate Excellence