The Daily Tar Heel

North Carolina freshman Reyshawn Terry finished with 10 points and four rebounds, both career highs, in UNC's win against George Mason.

WRESTLING

said. "But it wasn't as close last year — let's put it that way. I think I've definitely improved on my style a little bit."

Booth, a junior in the 141-ound class, also cruised through his early matches Saturday before he ran into Michigan State's Andy Simmons, the 14th-ranked wrestler in the nation in the weight class, in the final.

After falling behind 2-0 in the first period, Booth battled with Simmons for the rest of the match, but he never scored any points and lost 4-0.

Saturday's tournament was also an impressive display for Canty, who is proving to be a force at the 184-pound weight class. Canty won three matches before dropping the final in double overto Michigan State's Nate Mesyn 3-1. Canty improved his season record to 8-5

Although he was disappointed about his final match, Canty said he was more concerned with the team's solid performance "We looked good," Canty said. "It's a long day. You just have to tough it out.

"Some of these guys who wres-tled four or five matches, that's a tough thing to do. But I think we did a good job."

Rodrigues also said he felt good about the progress the team

Sports

miscues that wouldn't show up in game notes "Three straight plays we tried to run," Roy Williams said. "He went times yanked.

the wrong way all three freakin'

In the second half, Terry checked in at the 11-minute mark for Melvin Scott, who had picked up his fourth personal foul. Terry then picked up two fouls of his own in 38 seconds and was

He was back in time to collect Raymond Felton's 15th assist on a two-handed dunk in traffic. But he was in position to make the dunk and draw contact as a result of being out of position.

Terry, who finished with 10 points and four rebounds, admitted he's still trying to learn the plays and how to be in the right spots at the right time.

Jawad Williams said that some

TERRY

"I asked him what day it was. And he was good." The freshman from Winston-Salem began the season playing power forward and center behind upperclassmen. Jawad Williame upperclassmen Jawad Williams and Sean May. But after Jackie Manuel injured his knee on Nov. 29 against Cleveland State, Roy Williams decided to move Terry to the perimeter.

He tallied six points and three rebounds in 11 minutes in that win.

But since then, Terry has struggled to adjust.

"As far as executing plays, I worry about, 'Am I going to mess up?" Terry said. "And if I mess up, is it going to be on me as far as the team not being able to score?" Against George Mason, Terry primarily spelled players in foul trouble. As would be expected, his play was up-and-down. He checked in with 5 minutes seconds to play in the first half when Manuel picked up his second foul.

He played the next five minutes, scoring five points, including a layup from Justin Bohlander and a put-back on a Jawad Williams miss did get an offensive "He rebound for us one time that was really good," Roy Williams said.

But the coach also pointed out showed in Saturday's tournament. "We did well today," Rodrigues said. "I think we picked it up. There's still a lot of room for improvement, but I think today was a good turn for our team in the right direction.

Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

933-8600

days feel like "Get on Reyshawn Day." But May said Terry is receptive to the criticism. "He's done a great job of taking it and trying to do what we ask," May said. "We try to preach to him, 'Hey, it's going to be alright. Do the things coach asks and you can get a lot of minutes, you can be a great player."

But any reports of Terry joining the Tar Heels' seven-man rotation would not just be premature. They'd be wrong. "That's the reason you're writing and I'm coaching," Roy Williams joked. "He made me so dadgum mad that if I'd had my hands on him, I'd be in jail right now.

i know one day

Chapel Hil 942-7762

Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

al A

286-2872

MEN'S HOOPS

left in the game on an alley-oop to Jawad Williams, who dunked Felton's perfect feed for two of his 21 points. "He knows if he throws it up there high enough, I'll go get it," Jawad Williams said.

But Felton didn't know that he had broken the team's four-yearold record. "Before he came out of the game, I was like, 'Shorty, get into it. You straight?'' said guard Melvin Scott. "He was like, 'Yep. I got my 12 assists.' When they took him out, (the P.A. announcer) was 'Raymond Felton has like assists.' I had to stand up (to applaud), 'cause I was in my defensive stance. That's awesome."

The Tar Heels' offensive efficiency was awesome as well. The 115 points was their highest total in nine seasons. They shot 61 percent from the field, including 65 percent in the second half.

Everything is rolling right for the Tar Heels so far, and the expectations are building. But eir experienced coach knows the journey is just beginning. "We're a long way, a long way," Roy Williams said. "And I've coached a couple games - I did-n't get this gray hair from just walking in the gym today."

> Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

UNC 115, G 81 49 81 47 01 00 26 24 00 33 15 20 01 01 1-1 4-6 0-0 2-3 5-5 3-2 0-0 0-0 0-0 0-0 0-0 0-0 2-3 1-7 1-1 8-10 6-8 2-8 0-4 6-7 0-2 0-0 0-0 2-4 0-0 2-4

		fg	ft	rb
	min	m-a	ma	9-1		pf	tp
Vilkams	27	8-13	44	4-6	1	4	21
McCants	23	7.9	34	0-2	1	3	21
May	30	10-12	6.8	1-6	2	3	26
Scott	30	4-8	24	0.3	4	4	13
Felton	31	2.7	45	1-5	18	2	8
Manuel	19	1.2	0-0	3-8	0	2	2
Bohlande	r16	1-4	34	2-5	2	1	5
ferry	8	34	45	34	0	2	10
Holley	3	1.3	2.2	00	0	0	4
Sanders	3	1-1	1-2	0-1	0	0	3
Price	4	00	00	0.0	0	0	0
McLamb	2	0-1	0-0	00	0	0	0
Miller	2	0.0	00	00	0	0	0
looker	2	1.2	00	1-2	1	0	2
lotal	200	39-64	29-38	15-40	28	21	115

305-622-9330

Book Buyback Hours

Thur-Fri, December 11-12 Saturday, December 13 Sunday, December 14 Mon-Wed, December 15-17 Thursday, December 18 Friday, December 19

7:30am - 8:00pm 7:30am - 6:00pm 1:00pm - 6:00pm 7:30am - 8:00pm 7:30am - 5:30pm 10:00am - 6:00pm

