The Daily Tar Heel

State cruises after slow start Faltering offense stalls UNC BY AARON FITT

BY MICHAEL MARTINEZ

For a few minutes Wednesday night, it seemed that the North Carolina wrestling team was on track to provide first-year coach C.D. Mock with an ideal debut to ACC competition. Venroy July and Ryan Adams won the match's opening bouts and gave the Tar Heels a quick 6-0 advantage against N.C. State. The Wolfpack responded by winning six consecutive decisions, however, and cruised to a 26-12 victory at Carmichael Auditorium.

Although he would have pre-ferred a victory, Mock said he was pleased with the team's performance against its rival, especially considering the circumstances.

The Tar Heels (1-3), who have relied heavily on experienced wrestlers throughout the season, were dealt another major blow this week when Chris Rodrigues, an All-American at 125 pounds in 2002, was dismissed from the team

"I don't like to lose, but I saw a lot of good things out there today," Mock said. "My guys wrestled very well, and they're struggling "We asked them to step up, and some of these guys are filling big shoes July set the tone for UNC with a Hatrum, and lost 7-5. 4-2 overtime victory in the opening bout at 197 pounds. After battling with Wolfpack freshman Zach Garren through two overtime periods, July scored a takedown to give his team a 3-0 lead.

In the ensuing bout, Adams doubled UNC's lead by manhan-dling Wolfpack heavyweight Jainor Palma 8-3, but the rest of the night belonged to N.C. State.

The Wolfpack rattled off six con-secutive victories in the lower weight classes to take a commanding 26-6 lead.

Josh Lee finally stopped the bleeding by gutting out a 6-4 over-time victory against Wolfpack 174-pounder Rick Brownlee.

Mark Canty won the night's final bout at 184 pounds with a 7-4 deci-sion against Daniel Humphries. There were a few bright spots for UNC during the six-loss stretch.

Freshman 125-pounder Dre

Forshey was impressive in his new starting role. Forshey fought back from an early deficit to tie his bout at 5-5 in the third period, but was outlasted in overtime by Jeremy Garrett Atkinson stayed close with Dustin Kawa, a two-time ACC champion, before losing by pinfall in the third period.

"We've got guys that are step-ping up, and I'm really pleased," Mock said. "Two weeks ago, Drew Forshey thought he was a red shirt. Now he's in there, and he almost beat that kid, and he will beat that kid be back on top."

July also said he thought Wednesday's match was an encouraging sign.

"We're going to keep on going on," he said. "We've got the guys who want to wrestle now, and we're going to keep on getting better. We will get better."

He put Maryland in con-trol early in the second half, scoring 10 of the Terrapins' first 15 points. "He's a great player in his senior year," May said. "He did what he had to do to win and L dido't L ad to do to win, and I didn't. I played like a little baby out there." May's frustration was caused by his 7-for-19 shooting and his four turnovers. Whenever he got the ball in the post, Maryland's defense collapsed on him, forcing a bad shot or a turnover. But several times, May simply missed easy layups.

"They were swarming him," Williams said. "They were getting people around him, and I think that was one of their focuses."

Early on, it wasn't a serious prob-lem for the Tar Heels. They were getting scoring from a variety of sources in the extremely fast-pa ced game. All their starters had at least eight points at halftime. But Maryland kept pace, thanks largely to the play of guard John Gilchrist and forward Ekene Ibekwe, who scored 11 and 13 points, respectively, in the first half. Still, North Carolina stretched its lead to 10 at the 6:43 mark in the half. It looked like the game was close to getting out of hand, but Tar Heel turnovers kept it close. "There were times in the first half where North Carolina started to make runs," said Maryland coach Gary Williams. "I don't think there are many teams in the country that can put points up on you that fast. I'm really proud because we won this game as a team.'
