North Carolina senior Dionne Streete receives congratulations from her teammates after one of her three home runs in four weekend games.

Streete rebounds in final year

BY GABRIELLE DEROSA
ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

Dionne Streete quietly exited the North Carolina softball locker room, hands shoved deep in her pockets with a complacent expression across her face.

Contrary to her unassuming and "soft-spoken" personality, as coach Donna Papa describes it, Streete is a powerhouse at the plate.

The senior blasted three home runs in two doubleheaders against N.C. State and Maryland this weekend.

Her solo home run in the second game against State gave UNC a win in extra innings.

"This is by far her best year hitting," Papa said. "She was not consistent as a hitter over the last three years."

Streete's batting average last year was .235, and she tallied only three home runs.

She classified last year's performance at the plate as a slump, but she refocused this season to step up and replenish some of the senior leadership that had graduated.

"I think I have more confidence this year," Streete said. "Hitting positively or negatively reinforces itself. This season I've had a lot of success at the plate. It's just that positive reinforcement that keeps cycling."

As of Sunday, Streete is hitting .348 and has smacked eight home runs this season — she hit five in her first three years.

"You always want a senior to go out on a high note and have the best part of their career happening," Papa said. "We need her leadership now."

Ask the modest Streete about her own home run streak, and she quickly directs the attention to the team as a whole.

"I don't think anyone of us gets up to hit a home run," Streete said. "There's just a general desire to get on base."

"Dionne is a great leadoff hitter because she's got speed, she's got power and she can put the ball on the ground."

DONNA PAPA, UNC SOFTBALL COACH

Going into this season, Papa said she was having a difficult time finding the perfect leadoff batter. Streete proved to be the best solution.

"Dionne is a great leadoff hitter because she's got speed, she's got power, and she can put the ball on the ground," Papa said.

For fellow senior Natashaly Snipes, who holds the number two spot in the lineup, Streete's consistency is a confidence booster.

"She gets on the majority of times," Snipes said. "It puts a lot less pressure on myself so I can really relax and concentrate and do my job. She's just making it easy for me."

In the first game of Sunday's doubleheader against Maryland, Streete went 2 for 3 and led off the fifth inning by ripping a solo home run over the left-center-field fence for the only run of the game.

The senior has embraced her role as a leader and a leadoff hitter. Streete said, "Being a leadoff hitter, you want to set the tone and start it right."
