

Dear Students,

Did you know that Carolina students are studying at a campus that is truly global? Your classroom can be found not only in Hamilton, Venable or Murphey, but also in cities in more than 60 countries of the world.

The Study Abroad Office offers you over 270 academic programs that allow you to take courses abroad and transfer credit for your Carolina degree. Simultaneously, through admission to one of these programs, you have the opportunity to learn how to negotiate cultural boundaries and to live as a foreigner in a country that will have a different history, culture and perhaps even language from that of the United States. Pursuing an academic program in London, Buenos Aires, Cairo, Moscow or Beijing, for example, will initiate the process of learning to become a global citizen as well as deepen your understanding of the United States by viewing it from a different place.

The Study Abroad Office will assist you to find the most appropriate program to realize your academic objectives as well as your cultural interests, provide practical advice, transfer your credit and assist you with the use of your financial aid. So, please visit the Study Abroad Office to give us the pleasure of showing you the way to find your place on Carolina's global campus!

Bob Miles
Director of Study Abroad

SPRING 2005 APPLICATION CYCLE FOR SUMMER

January 21 - Study Abroad Fair

January 26 - Burch Field Research Seminars & Honors Study Abroad Fair

February 11 - Summer Programs application deadline

February 18 - Fall and Year-long 2005 Programs application deadline

New Programs for Summer 2005

- UNC Summer in Chile - An introductory program in Latin American Studies
- UNC Summer in Moscow, Russia - Social Science track (courses taught in English)
- UNC Summer in Moscow, Russia - Intermediate Russian Language track
- UNC Summer in Jordan - Arab Middle Eastern Studies in Amman
- Spanish Language Immersion - Summer in Puebla, Mexico
- Gardner Field Research Seminar - Education and Health in Vietnam
- Hokkaido Intensive Japanese Language and Culture - Hakodate, Japan
- FUBis - Freie Universität Berlin - German Language and European Studies in Germany

How to Get Started

GO ONLINE! From our main web page, <http://studyabroad.unc.edu>, click on "Find a Program" to research where our programs are located. Attend a "Study Abroad 101" information session. (Check "calendar" for dates) To find out more about the application process, click on "Getting Started". Schedule an appointment with an advisor: click on "Meet the Advisors" and "How to Find Us" if you've never been to the office before.

Exchange Programs

UNC-Chapel Hill, through the Study Abroad Office, has agreements with selected institutions around the world that make it possible for many students to study abroad at these institutions while paying their tuition/fees here at Carolina. All programs have GPA eligibility requirements and some have language, major, and/or a requirement that you be at least a Junior. So it's important to read all the information provided on the individual Study Abroad program brochure online. You can search for these programs via our website, <http://studyabroad.unc.edu>. Just click on "Find a program" to search for exchange programs. Obviously, this is a plus for instate students. For out-of-state students, many non-exchange program costs are lower than out-of-state tuition at UNC-CH. When exploring any program, be sure to click on "budget sheet" from any program brochure, to get an estimate of the cost of attendance for that program, and to see whether the program is "exchange or non-exchange". When you meet with an advisor, be sure to ask about costs.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill currently has programs in: Argentina • Australia • Austria • Bahamas • Belgium • Belize • Bolivia • Botswana • Brazil • Cameroon • Chile • China • Costa Rica • Croatia • Cuba • Czech Republic • Denmark • Korea (Republic of) • Madagascar • Mali • Mexico • Mongolia • Morocco • Nepal • Netherlands • New Zealand • Nicaragua • Northern Ireland • Norway • Panama • Peru • Poland

Program changes do occur for various reasons. Please contact our