

UNC defeats Citadel but falls in 2 other matches

FROM WIRE REPORTS

CHARLESTON, S.C. — North Carolina sophomore Drew Forshey won twice at 125 pounds, and junior All-American Evan Sola picked up two victories at 133 as North Carolina defeated The Citadel 29-10 and fell to No. 9 Central Michigan 29-9 at McAlister Field House on Sunday.

With two wins on the day for UNC (5-9, 3-2 in the ACC), Forshey improved to 10-6 on the season. He provided one of the lone bright spots versus Central Michigan (14-3), North Carolina's sixth nationally-ranked opponent of the season. With the Tar Heels trailing 29-0, Forshey got UNC on the board with a 9-3 decision against 17th-ranked Luke Smith at 125 pounds. Sola followed with a win via forfeit at 133 to cut the final margin to 29-9.

Against the Citadel (2-7-1), Forshey and Sola closed out a dominating performance by North Carolina. With the Tar Heels holding a 21-10 lead, Forshey recorded a 19-2 technical fall against Andrew McDonald at the 5:00 mark of the match, and Sola won a 3-2 decision against Ryan McClester at 133 for the 29-10 final score. With two wins on the day, Sola pushed his season record to 27-3 and 14-0 in duals. He has won his last 15 bouts.

Earlier in the match, UNC jumped out to a 12-4 lead highlighted by a pin by freshman Isaiah Britton at 141 to start the match. He pinned Michael Arias at 1:54, while Chris Ramos (149) and Garrett Atkinson (165) also posted decisions. The Citadel got back in the match with a major decision by Travis Piccard at 157 and decisions versus Dan Thompson and Keith Clifton at 174 and 184, which trimmed the lead to 12-10.

Sophomore David Dashiell got the Tar Heels back on track with an 8-2 decision against Aaron Brown at 197, and Spencer Nadolsky pushed the lead to 21-10 with a pin of Billy Linane in just 32 seconds at heavyweight. Forshey and Sola then closed out the match.

Against Virginia Tech in Chapel Hill on Friday, UNC won five matches and Sola captured the battle between two of the nation's top 133-pounders. But the Hokies (14-4, 4-0) managed a pair of pins and won a tightly-contested match at heavyweight to hold on for a 21-15 victory against the Tar Heels at Fetzner Gym.

Sola, Britton, Atkinson, freshman Alex Maciag (174) and Dashiell were all victorious for his Tar Heels.

With UNC trailing 6-0 following a Virginia Tech pin at 125, Sola grabbed an overtime win against 10th-ranked David Hoffman, who entered the match with a 29-3 record on the season. Sola, who ranks 11th nationally, got on the board first with a second-period escape and held that lead until late in the match until Hoffman took a 2-1 lead on an escape and stalling by Sola in the final 30 seconds of the third period. Sola added a point due to riding time to send the match into overtime. In the sudden victory period, Sola picked up a point as Hoffman was flagged for stalling and claimed the match 3-2.

North Carolina wraps up the dual match portion of its schedule against rival N.C. State on Thursday at Carmichael Auditorium.

FELTON

FROM PAGE 12

on offense. After collecting just two points and three assists in the first half, Felton finished with 16 and 10, respectively.

He also made five steals while harassing Williams into six second-half turnovers, converting many of those mistakes into easy baskets on the other end.

"(I was) pressuring the ball, thinking what he was going to do," said Felton, who had just two turnovers after committing eight in the North Carolina loss to Duke. "Instead of just guarding a person, I try to figure out what they like to do. I was dictating what he was doing before he did it."

Felton had a hand in every point in the Tar Heels' 20-10 run in the second half, which turned a 44-41 deficit into a seven-point lead. He scored nine points and handed out five assists.

"Raymond was still, I think, feeling the effects of the other night," said UNC coach Roy Williams. "He felt like he didn't make a play down the stretch; that was bothering him. He didn't play very well today, in the first half.

"(In the second half), he got more active, came up with a couple of steals, couple of deflections. I thought in one stretch for about five minutes, every time there was a loose ball, Raymond came up with it."

On maybe the most spectacular play in UNC's run, Felton deflected a Marcus Williams pass and came down with the loose ball. He looked up and found Marvin Williams streaking down the court and dished it off for a two-hand slam that tied the score at 44.

Felton added two more assists in the next 30 seconds, and the Tar Heels were on their way to the convincing road victory against a ranked opponent that had slipped out of their grasp on Wednesday.

"For my money, Felton is as good a point guard as I've seen," said Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun. "Today, he was impeccable. ... I thought in the first half, Marcus matched him. In the second half, Felton won the battle."

Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

TENNIS

FROM PAGE 12

keeled and they were getting frustrated."

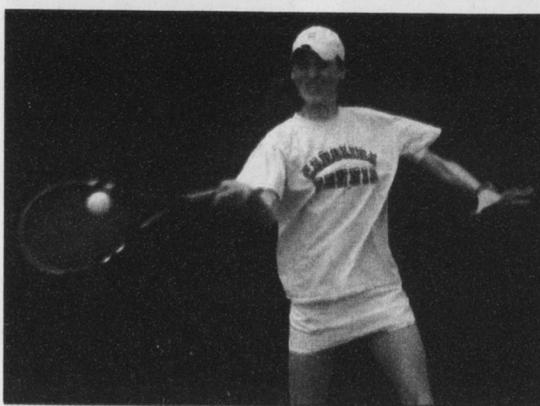

Both North Carolina players and coach were quick to admit that playing at home certainly helped, and the fact that they had played Kentucky so recently made it easier to prepare.

"When (Kentucky) shot up to No. 3 in the rankings, I think that kind of made more of an impression on our players to say, 'Hey we know we can beat them and this would be a great opportunity for us to play them at our home courts,'" Kalbas said.

The 14th-ranked doubles team of Mojzis and Cline used the homecourt advantage to help them defeat the 11th-ranked doubles team of Kim Coventry and Joelle Schwenk, 8-3.

Mojzis and Cline are a dominating duo and are now 6-0 when playing at home.

Another contributing factor to Kentucky's loss, and one that must have been responsible for much of the Wildcats' volatility, was the absence of their No. 1 singles player,

DTH/BRANDON SMITH

North Carolina's Aniela Mojzis hammers a forehand during her victorious doubles match Saturday as the Tar Heels shut out No. 3 Kentucky, 7-0.

Aibika Kalsarjeva, who was sick.

"That's always a hard thing to figure out right at the last (minute)," Cline said. "They're obviously a really good team, but they didn't really handle it as well as they could have."

Mojzis maintained that Kalsarjeva's presence wouldn't have made much of a difference. "We were coming in very excited," she said. "Whether their number-one player pulled out or not, I think we had a good chance of beating them."

Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

CONNECTICUT

FROM PAGE 12

"I liked our competitiveness, I liked our composure down the stretch," he said. "I feel about 179 degrees from the way I felt on Wednesday night. I don't feel very good (physically), but mentally I feel like a queen."

Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

UNC 77, Connecticut 70

North Carolina	31	46	77
Connecticut	34	36	70

UNC (81)
min	fg	ft	rb	a	pf	tp
J. Williams 28	7-7	0-0	2-6	0	1	17
McCants 27	7-16	0-0	1-4	1	4	15
May 28	5-11	8-8	4-13	1	1	18
Felton 34	5-14	4-6	1-3	10	3	16
Manuel 18	0-1	0-0	2-2	1	1	0
Scott 17	0-4	0-0	0-1	1	0	0
Terry 6	1-1	0-0	0-0	1	1	3
Thomas 6	0-0	0-0	0-0	2	0	0
M. Williams 23	4-9	0-1	3-6	1	4	8
Noel 13	1-1	0-0	1-1	2	2	2
Total	200	30-74	10-15	14-35	19	77

Percentages — FG 40.5, FT 66.7, 3-point goals — 7-23 (J. Williams 3-7, Felton 2-6, McCants 1-6, Terry 1-1, Scott 0-3, May 0-1). Team rebounds — 5. Blocked shots — 1 (Terry). Turnovers — 11 (May 3, McCants 3, Felton 2, Manuel, Terry, M. Williams). Steals — 13 (Felton 5, Manuel 5, May 2, Scott).

Connecticut (71)
min	fg	ft	rb	a	pf	tp
Villanueva 28	1-8	0-1	1-7	0	3	2
Gay 39	4-14	4-8	2-8	2	1	13
Brown 28	5-12	3-4	1-5	1	2	15
Boone 33	7-10	2-4	5-11	0	2	18
Williams 36	7-14	2-2	2-4	3	1	18
Armstrong 18	2-2	0-2	1-4	2	2	4
Thompson 2	0-0	0-0	0-0	0	0	0
Kellogg 16	1-4	0-0	1-8	1	4	2
Nelson 1	0-0	0-0	0-0	0	0	0
Total	200	27-62	11-19	14-43	11	70

Percentages — FG 43.5, FT 57.9, 3-point goals — 5-14 (Brown 2-7, Williams 2-2, Gay 1-3, Kellogg 0-2). Team rebounds — 6. Blocked shots — 16 (Gay 4, Boone 4, Armstrong 3, Villanueva 3, Brown 2). Turnovers — 22 (Williams 7, Kellogg 5, Gay 4, Boone 3, Armstrong 2, Brown). Steals — 5 (Kellogg 2, Gay 2, Williams). Technical fouls — None. Attendance — 10,294.

VA. TECH

FROM PAGE 12

Hokie shot and took an assist from La'Tangela Atkinson in the post to expand UNC's lead to 6 points.

"Where they made that run, we took some quick shots, some bad shots, let them go in transition and then let them get two and three looks at the basket," said Virginia Tech coach Beth Dunkenberger.

Senior Nikita Bell put up a solid defensive effort, leading the team with seven steals.

"She gave us a lot of energy," Hatchell said. "She was playing well, and that's why I started her in the second half. I thought her being out there really helped us get going."

But Hatchell was not pleased with the team's overall defensive effort.

The Hokies (14-8, 3-6) shot 52 percent from the floor in the second half, and point guard Carrie Mason was perfect from 3-point range.

The always modest Atkinson led UNC with seven assists. She also had a double-double with 12 rebounds and 12 points.

Hatchell said Atkinson would rather rebound than eat.

"Shooting percentage or rebounds — she does those things out there and you just don't notice it that much, but her numbers are always good," Hatchell said. "She does so much for us that she doesn't get credit for, and she doesn't like credit."

Atkinson bashfully dropped her head during her coach's comments in the post-game remarks. Hatchell joked that the starting junior would probably not score in the next few games to avoid being dragged into a press conference where she would have to discuss her achievements.

But Atkinson and her teammates only have four more games left before they focus on title runs.

UNC has had tournament buzz surrounding it since the team eked out a win against defending champion Connecticut. But Hatchell isn't quick to liken her team to her 1994 national championship team.

"Defensively, we're not there, because that '94 team could really play some defense," Hatchell said. "This group is on track for that, but we're not there yet. Sharing the basketball and the team chemistry and all, we're close to that level."

"I think we could be a great team, and at times we really are, but we've still got some things we need to work on."

Contact the Sports Editor at sports@unc.edu.

UNC 93, Virginia Tech 67

Virginia Tech	35	32	67
North Carolina	45	48	93

Virginia Tech (67)
min	fg	ft	rb	a	pf	tp
Anderson 16	0-5	0-0	0-1	0	3	0
Gardin 28	8-10	2-5	6-10	2	3	14
Gibson 24	6-12	0-0	0-1	1	3	12
Chiss 30	6-10	2-3	1-4	3	1	14
Mason 36	4-7	0-0	1-3	5	1	12
Finnerty 21	2-7	1-2	1-3	4	2	5
Recchia 7	0-0	0-0	0-1	0	0	0
Marone 17	3-4	0-0	0-0	1	1	7
Copeland 4	0-2	0-0	0-0	0	0	0
Jackson 17	1-2	1-2	0-3	0	2	3
Total	200	28-59	6-12	10-28	16	67

Percentages — FG 47.5, FT 50.0, 3-point goals — 5-7 (Mason 4-4, Marone 1-1, Gardin 0-1). Team rebounds — 2. Blocked shots — 3 (Gardin, Gibson, Jackson). Turnovers — 24 (Gibson 7, Mason 5, Gardin 3, Marone 3, Anderson 2, Chiss 2, Recchia, Jackson). Steals — 17 (Anderson 4, Mason 4, Chiss 3, Jackson 3, Marone 2, Gardin).

North Carolina (93)
min	fg	ft	rb	a	pf	tp
Latta 28	4-8	0-0	3-4	3	2	9
Larkins 19	6-9	1-1	3-5	2	3	13
Atkinson 30	6-13	0-3	6-12	7	3	12
Metcalf 21	1-6	0-1	0-4	3	0	2
Latta 33	7-14	1-2	0-2	5	2	19
Bell 19	6-7	2-5	1-2	5	1	14
Pringle 16	5-6	6-6	4-0	1	1	16
McBee 16	3-5	2-2	1-5	0	1	8
Nelson 9	0-1	0-0	0-0	1	0	0
Sell 5	0-1	0-0	0-0	0	0	0
Miller 3	0-1	0-0	0-0	0	0	0
Tucker 3	0-1	0-0	0-0	0	0	0
Total	200	38-71	12-20	21-48	25	93

Percentages — FG 53.5, FT 60.0, 3-point goals — 5-17 (28-47, Latta 4-7, Little 1-3, Metcalf 0-4, Atkinson 0-2, Sell 0-1). Team rebounds — 5. Blocked shots — 4 (McBee 2, Little, Pringle). Turnovers — 21 (Latta 4, Bell 4, Atkinson 3, Larkins 2, Metcalf 2, McBee 2, Little, Pringle, Miller, Team). Steals — 15 (Bell 7, Atkinson 2, Metcalf 2, Latta 2, Little, Nelson).

Technical fouls — None. Attendance — 2,730.

Looking for an Opportunity to Make a Difference?

CIA's Directorate of Intelligence will be interviewing candidates for Analyst Positions.

Representatives from CIA's analytical arm, the Directorate of Intelligence, will be interviewing for analyst positions in Raleigh during the week of March 28th. Analysts work on the forefront of protecting national security, quickly assessing how rapidly changing international developments will impact US interests at home and abroad. They use information from classified and unclassified sources from around the world to develop and provide the reliable intelligence that is essential for US policymakers to make informed decisions. The DI is hiring for the following positions:

- Analytic Methodologist
- Collection Analyst
- Counterintelligence
- Threat Analyst
- Counterterrorism Analyst
- Economic, Political, Leadership and Military Analysts
- Science, Technology and Weapons Analyst
- Medical Analyst
- Psychological/Psychiatric Analyst
- Crime and Counterterrorism Analyst

Candidates must have at least a bachelor's degree with a minimum GPA of 3.0. Language skills, previous foreign area residence or travel, and relevant work experience are pluses. Candidates must successfully complete a medical examination, polygraph interview, and an extensive background investigation. All positions require US citizenship and relocation to the Washington, DC area.

The CIA is America's premier intelligence agency, and we are committed to building and maintaining a work force as diverse as the nation we serve.

For additional information, and to apply online, please visit www.cia.gov. Successful applicants who have submitted their resume by February 25th will be contacted to attend an information session and arrange a local area interview.

An equal opportunity employer and a drug-free work force.

THE WORK OF A NATION. THE CENTER OF INTELLIGENCE.

Drink.

Win.

Play.

1 in 3 wins a free song on iTunes

Plus a chance to win an iPod mini every hour.

Your song is in the bottle.

Available on specially marked 20 oz. and 1-Liter bottles of Pepsi, Diet Pepsi, Pepsi Wild Cherry, Mountain Dew, Diet Mountain Dew, Mountain Dew Code Red and Sierra Mist.

No Purchase Necessary. Subject to official rules at www.pepsi.com. For rules/free game piece, send SASE (postmarked by 4/31/05) to Pepsi/iTunes Game Piece, P.O. Box 4711, Young America, MN 55558-4711. VT residents omit return postage. Must be 13 or older to win. Computer/Internet access and registration on iTunes.com required. For PC users, Windows 2000 or XP required. Technology/download/transfer restrictions apply. Void where prohibited. Code entry limit per e-mail address: 10 per day, 200 total. Sweepstakes ends 4/11/05. Redeem song by 5/23/05.

PEPSI, PEPSI-COLA, DIET PEPSI, PEPSI WILD CHERRY, MOUNTAIN DEW, DIET MOUNTAIN DEW, MOUNTAIN DEW CODE RED, SIERRA MIST and the Pepsi Global design are trademarks of PepsiCo, Inc. © Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple logo, iTunes and iPod are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc.

Georgetown

1789-89

Public Affairs Seminar: Internship Program

June 6 - August 12, 2005
Application Deadline: March 18, 2005

Gateway to Business

May 31 - June 1, 2005
Application Deadline: April 29, 2005

Antwerp, Belgium Exchange Program

May 22 - June 4, 2005
Application Deadline: March 18, 2005

Georgetown University, School of Continuing Studies
Box 571010 • Washington, DC 20057-1010
Phone: (202) 651-5710 • Fax: (202) 651-8234
Special Programs: specialprograms@georgetown.edu • Web: <http://www.georgetown.edu/continuing-studies>