POLICE LOG

■ A fowl disturbance occurred midday Friday, according to Carrboro police reports.

■ A Pleasant Drive man called police to tell them of "a stray rooster constantly crowing throughout the day and night," reports state. Police set a trap for the wayward bird, reports state.

■ Robert Hawk Wilson, of 100 W. Rosemary St., was arrested Saturday on shoplifting charges, Chapel Hill police reports state.

Wilson is charged with stealing two stuffed monsters and two stuffed monkeys — valued at $47.50 altogether — and was arrested on the 100 block of West Franklin Street at 3:07 p.m., according to reports.

He is scheduled to appear in court in Hillsborough on May 8.

■ Efrain Ramos Trinidad, of 306 Estes Drive Extension, apartment C9, Carrboro, was arrested on charges of driving while impaired and not having a drivers license at 2:53 a.m. Monday at the intersection of Estes Drive and Halifax Road after he was seen driving on the wrong side of the road, according to Chapel Hill police reports.

Reports state that Trinidad registered a .12 blood alcohol content on the Intoxilyzer test.

■ An outdoor rendezvous was disrupted by the authorities early Saturday, according to Carrboro police reports.

An officer spotted a dark vehicle in the back of a parking lot at 515 S. Greensboro St., reports state.

According to reports, the officer spotted two suspects behind the car and told them put their hands up.

Instead, reports state, the pair jumped into the vehicle, and the driver turned the ignition.

Reports state that the officer then drew his gun, at which point the subjects became "cooperative."

"The subjects advised that they were at that location to have sex," reports state.

The incident ended when the officer told the two to leave.
