SportSaturday is happy to introduce its latest feature: NCAA College Football 2007 simulations. Watch each week to see how it compares to the actual game.

Game trends: UNC and Rutgers opened the first game of the season with a shootout. Jesse Holley and Joe Dailey hooked up for the first of two TD connections with a 64-yard bomb that put the Tar Heels up 14-7.

UNC was able to control Brian Leonard for most of the game, but a 28-yard run put the Scarlet Knights in the lead late in the third quarter. The Tar Heels fought back and sealed the game with a 6-yard run by senior Ronnie McGill to win, 31-24.
