Game trends: The Tar Heels dug an early hole for themselves, allowing the Bulls an easy score to start the game and throwing an interception that put them down 14-0.

The second quarter, and the second half for that matter, was a completely different story.

After giving up an early 73-yard drive, the UNC defense limited the Bulls to 101 yards of total offense for the remainder of the game. The Tar Heels tied the game in the second quarter with two runs on the ground.

UNC sealed it in the fourth when CB Quinton Person returned a 46-yard pass for a TD, and a second TD run for Sexton was the icing on the cake.
